ROAD BUILDER DIES IN SLEEP

Conrad J. Langenfelder, 71, of Baltimore, head of the firm of C. J. Langenfelder and Son, Inc., contractors on the first section of the new Lincoln highway extending west from McKnightstown, died in his sleep Tuesday at his home in Baltimore.

Although he had been ill with a heart ailment for many months and in semi-retirement, Mr. Langenfelder went to his office each day at 6:30 a. m., a custom of many years. He was born on a farm near Baltimore and was 40 years old when he entered the excavating business. His first jobs were excavating for cellars, using teams and wagons.

Mr. Langenfelder's firm recently completed the contract for the Frederick, Md., end of the new alternate Route 40. Another recent major job was the excavating and grading for Baltimore's new Friendship international airport in Anne Arundel county. The firm did much of the work in excavating and grading on Andrews air field at Camp Spring, Phillips field at Aberdeen Proving Grounds and the airport at Edgewood arsenal.

The widow, a son, who is the active head of the business, and two daughters survive. Funeral services Friday afternoon and interment in Zion Lutheran cemetery, Baltimore.

WOMAN'S CLUB ENJOYS PLAY BY MEMBERS

A satire on a meeting of the Woman's club of Gettysburg written by one member, directed by another, with an all-member cast "brought down the house" Wednesday afternoon when it was presented at the YWCA before an audience of members only.

Mrs. Myron W. Stearn, in writing the skit, used incidents, some of which had taken place in meetings, and others which "could have taken place" as Mrs. Henry M. Scharf, the president, explained in an introductory talk. The entire atmosphere, as created by the script and the cast, was typical of the "Goin' on" at a woman's club meeting—not at its best perhaps, but still with a thread of truth running through it.

About 130 members were present.

Member Directs Play

The play which was under the direction of Mrs. Madolyn Killalea had the following cast:

Club president, Mrs. John S. Rice; secretary, Mrs. Allen S. Stauffer; ex-president, Mrs. Milton Tipton; Dulcy, a guest, Mrs. Richard A. Brown; Margie, Mrs. Roy W. Gifford; Vera, Mrs. Robert Kenworthy; Mrs. Oser, Mrs. Robert Derck; Mrs. Fish, Mrs. Charles Pitzer; Mrs. Scurry, Mrs. Raymond F. Sheely; Mrs. Crydn, Mrs. Luella Musselman Arnold; Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Frank N. Hewetson; "Champion," guest speaker on the program; Mrs. Killalea; Mrs. Dugan McFynn, Mrs. Wilmer Bream; Mrs. Fordyce, Mrs. Russell A. Campbell; Mrs. Platt, Mrs. Stearns; Mrs. Klenigsmutes, Mrs. Louis P. Kooker; Mrs. Naylor, Mrs. Carl E. LET CONTRACT FOR ROAD WORK IN BIGLERVILLE

The Department of Highways today announced award of a contract for reconstruction of .76 of a mile on traffic route 34 in Biglerville to D. E. Smith, Inc., Millintown, at the low bid of $103,646.70.

Fifty-five working days are allowed for completion of the project.

The Biglerville improvement calls for replacing the existing 16 foot wide pavement with macadam 48 feet in width. This will consist of an 8 inch stone base and a 2 1/4 inch bituminous surface. The contract calls for 6,832 cubic yards of excavation and 19,988 square yards of bituminous surface.

Resurface Main Street

The job is located on Main street. It will start 330 feet south of the borough line and extend to within 319 feet south of the north borough line.

During construction traffic will be detoured by way of rural route 01007 to traffic route 394, 234 to route 34. Five contractors bid on the work but two of them failed to qualify and their proposals could not be considered. Their prices did not affect the award since they were higher than the proposal of the Smith company. Plummer and Son asked $108,961.80 for the work and Quigley's price was $134,053.30.

These property owners will be affected by the improvement: Roy and Mary Himes, Robert and Mary Hartman, Blaine G. Walter, Charles Myers, Merritt G. Rouser, Richard Fink, George Schmick, Mrs. Revere Thomas and F. W. Wright.

GETTYSBURG IS SITE FOR 1949 CHURCH MEET

Gettysburg was selected as the site for the 1949 convention of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Maryland Wednesday afternoon at the concluding session of the 129th annual meeting held Tuesday and Wednesday at the Church of the Abiding Presence on the seminary campus here. The group has been meeting here annually since 1942.

The Rev. E. S. Falkenstein, pastor of Grace church, Westminster, was named statistical secretary to replace the Rev. William G. Minnick, Baltimore, who held the post for the past 38 years. The Rev. Mr. Minnick retired with the close of the convention here due to ill health.

A resolution passed Wednesday afternoon practically guaranteed that the synod will have a full-time president starting next year. The motion set up the principle of having a full-time president and asked the constitution committee to draw up an enabling amendment. At present the president continues as pastor of his own church.

Vote Home $50,000

Appointment of a full-time youth worker for the synod was also approved by the synod, with the executive committee directed to appoint such a worker so that he could begin his duties as soon as possible.

Seventy-one pastors were presented with life memberships in the Women's Missionary society during the afternoon session.

The Synod will give $50,000 towards the National Lutheran Home for the Aged at Washington, D. C. during the coming year, the group decided. The amount, representing a considerable increase over last year's apportionment, will provide funds for completion by October 1 of the Maryland Synod building at the national home which will provide accommodations for 60 additional guests at the national home.

The group also voted to provide twice the amount to be asked by the United Lutheran Church for special projects during the coming year.

News Collected At Random

We acknowledge with thanks the following communication:

"At a recent meeting which included mothers of the town and community in answer to the oft-asked question: 'What do you think should be done about the plot in Center square?' a modest mother whispered this suggestion which went down the line 'Oh, I think they should keep the plot, by all means. We need a beauty spot there. But more than that, I visualize a fine statue of Abraham Lincoln in the center of that plot."

"That's the heart of our town. Gettysburg is known around the world for the speech that great man gave here. He belongs in the center of Gettysburg."

"It might not take an act of Congress to put that monument there. Who knows? The pennies of the school children of America saved Old Ironsides. The children of our land might be able to put Lincoln's statue here."

The communication is signed "A School Teacher."

A movement has long been underway in Gettysburg to erect a statue of Lincoln in Center square.

A number of years ago the late Herbert Spencer Houck, veteran of the Spanish American War and a sculptor of note, bequeathed $25,000 to have his statue of "Lincoln at Prayer" placed at Gettysburg.

A photograph of the statue, Lincoln kneeling in prayer, was published in The Times a long time ago. The statue, as everyone (Please turn to Page 8)

Chief Harpster said he had photographs taken of the scene of the accident and the scaffolding, to be used at the inquest.

The chief said that the results of his investigation indicated that the scaffolding was poorly constructed, that old lumber, some of it with dry rot, had been used and that other boards had been nailed over places where knots in the lumber weakened it.

Truman Asks Congress To Check Rising Living Costs

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
Washington, July 27 (AP)—President Truman today demanded limited price control and an excess profits tax to help check the rising cost of living and avert "another great depression."

A depression, he said, would scuttle "the world's hope for a lasting peace."

The President coupled a reiterated plea for power to hold wages in line with his price control recommendation. And he personally confronted the politically hostile 80th Congress with six other proposed brakes on spending—among them a return to credit restrictions and standby rationing authority.

Communists Want Crash
"The Communists, both here and abroad, are counting on our present prosperity turning into a depression," the Chief Executive declared. "They do not believe that we can—or will—put the brakes on high prices. They are counting on an economic collapse in this country."

That, he said, "would cut the ground from under the free nations of Europe."

Mr. Truman addressed a joint meeting of the Senate and House on the second day of the special session he called in the heat of a Presidential campaign year.

But his language was far more restrained than it was on his western tour, or in his acceptance speech to the Democratic national convention. Then he referred repeatedly to the Republican-controlled 80th Congress as one of the worst in the nation's history.

Details Not Given
The President did not spell out the details of his price control program. He left that a question to be answered by an administration bill promised later this week—perhaps tomorrow.

But he did say the controls should be authorized for "scarce commodities which basically affect essential industrial production or the cost of living." That would mean things (Please turn to Page 6)

BULLETINS

Berlin, July 27 (AP)—Two police forces as well as two police chiefs appeared in prospect today for blocked Berlin. Communists directly challenged the authority of the Socialist-controlled city government. The city government ordered him removed yesterday.

Orlando, Fla., July 27 (AP)—Joe Tinker of the double-play, Tinker-to-Evers-to-Chance baseball fame, died suddenly in a hospital today of respiratory trouble.

Washington, July 27 (AP)—The government asked the court of claims today to reconsider its action of June 28 taking jurisdiction over claims of former Federal Judge Albert W. Johnson for back pay and restoration of salary.

Edgar T. Fell, a Justice department attorney, contended in a brief that the court should not consider Johnson's argument that he "was ill mentally and physically" when he told a House committee investigating his conduct that he would renounce any claim to salary or other benefits.

Rome, July 27 (AP)—Union leaders strove desperately today to hold together Italy's General Confederation of Labor, as Communist members split with the Catholic and government party faction.

Dayton, Ohio, July 27 (AP)—Picket line resistance flared today as police threw in a flying wedge to permit reopening of the strike-bound Univis Lens company plant. Seven pickets, including one arrested in disorders, yesterday were hauled away in a police wagon.

"There are many citizens of the community who realize the benefit of this branch library, especially to the children, but those who have realized the great benefit, are not in a position to offer a room," a library booker said. "To close the library even temporarily, will be a great set-back to the efforts of those volunteer workers, who willingly gave of their time during this past year to help the community to become library conscious. Anyone who has a room available, or anyone who knows of a possible room is asked to contact Mrs. Anna Leach, Mrs. Cloy I. Crouse or Mrs. Leonard L. Potter at their earliest convenience."

Pvt. Eline was among the war dead whose bodies were originally interred in temporary military cemeteries at Nettuno and other points in Italy and was among the first to arrive from that country.

The infantryman entered the service on August 14, 1943, and received his basic training at Camp Croft, S. C. At the conclusion of his recruit training he spent ten days at his home. He then reported to Ft. George G. Meade, Md., where he remained for one week before being sent to an Eastern port of embarkation. He went overseas late in January, 1944. RISING COST OF LIVING BOOSTS RELIEF ROLLS

Will the present steadily increasing inflation cause an increase in public assistance?

That was the question bothering the Adams County Assistance Board today, and the only answer was a probable "yes."

The Assistance board must make up a budget for the coming quarter, and in studying its case load at a regular meeting in the assistance offices, Monday night, found that there has been a steady increase in aid to dependent children over the past year — an increase that may continue and steadily enlarge in scope.

Example Cited
There was one case which the board feared might become a trend. A family with ten children has come on the assistance rolls for the first time. There has been no change in the father's occupation, he still does a full day's work. He never had to seek assistance before, but his salary, which once took care of all, no longer can be spread out to provide food and housing for all. The assistance board investigation showed that the father was making less than the minimum amount that assistance can give and so he receives a supplemental payment each month to bring his income for the support of twelve up to the minimum that assistance would give.

Pointing out that in many cases large families received some support from grandparents, uncles and aunts who once were able to help out somewhat out of their additional cash, the board wondered if the increased cost of living might prevent that type of family aid and add another pressure which will bring many larger families of working men in the lower wage classifications on to the assistance rolls.

All told there has been an increase of 17 in the number of cases of assistance to dependent children over the past year, and most of the cases are supplemental payments being made to help out those whose income while working is below the bare necessities provided by the assistance grants.

Attends First Meeting
In July 1947, there were 102 cases of aid to dependent children; as of July 1, this year, there were 119 cases, an increase of 17 over the comparable month a year ago and an increase of three over the previous month when 116 cases were on the rolls.

Assistance cases show an increase of 32 over July of last year. The total this month is 741; the total a year ago was 709. There are 450 old age cases now as compared with 456 a year ago; 95 blind cases compared to 90 in 1947, and 68 general assistance cases compared to 61 a year ago.

The Rev. A. W. Geigley, Fairfield, who was named to the board to replace Mrs. Rasmus S. Saby who completed her two full terms permitted by law in May, was welcomed by the board Monday evening. It was the Rev. Mr. Geigley's first session with the board.

Two Vacancies
Resignation of Mrs. Stanley Whitson as a visitor was also accepted. Mrs. Whitson, who served as a visitor for several years, resigned to accompany her husband to Clear Spring, Md., where he has assumed his duties as a pastor.

Two vacancies now exist in the staff, that of a visitor and that of a clerk. Mrs. Verna Myers, director, urged those who took the recent civil examinations for such posts and who might be interested in working for the board to contact the office.

J. D. Miller, chairman of the board, presided with Mr. Stuart Danner, Harold Reuning, the Rev. Mr. Geigley and William B. Sneideringer in attendance. The next meeting will be held August 23.

He suffered a bruised hand and shoulder and Bernadette Althoff, 24, of Gettysburg R. 1, riding with Currens, suffered a bruised left hip. Both were treated at the Warner hospital and discharged.

The committee comprises Ray Kohler, New Oxford; Roy Weaver, Gettysburg R. D.; M. T. Walter, Biglerville; M. T. Hartman, county farm agent; Holman Sell, Littlestown; Roy Garber, New Oxford; Denton Little, Gettysburg R. D.; Ivan Hostetter, Hanover R. D.; and Edgar Leer, York Springs R. Prizes will be awarded to those having the best pastures according to the judges, who will be selected at the next meeting of the committee, on June 16.

Meeting in the local Adams County Agricultural Conservation Committee offices on North Washington street, the group said it expects about 100 farmers to enter the contest for which registration must be made by July 1.

Other Contests
Winners in the county are to be named prior to August 14 so that the farmer whose pasture is selected as the best can be entered in an area contest being conducted by the Production and Marketing Administration of the United States Department of Agriculture. The winner of the area contest will be entered in a state wide competition.

Those participating can secure registration blanks from any member of the committee or from the local Agricultural Conservation office on North Washington street. The pastures will be judged on the basis of production, type of management, and quality of the pasture.

The contest is being held to promote interest in pasture improvement in the county. The conservation committee members, Messrs Kohler, Weaver and Walter, who are sponsoring the contest, said that pastures are among the most profitable crops in the county, adding that the contest is designed to promote interest in making them even more profitable.

The referee hears the cases and later will hand down a decision on whether the employee's injury is covered by the workmen's compensation insurance in those cases seeking to start payment, or decides whether there is no further liability in cases where termination is sought.

Among the cases before the referee this morning were: Benjamin G. Harmon versus the Adams Apple Corporation; Jeremiah Spence versus the Gettysburg Panel company; Frank Raffensperger versus the Gettysburg Furniture company; Marlin Chronister, Hampton, versus George J. PALESTINE WAR RAGES ON TODAY

Cairo, May 26 (AP)—The war in Palestine raged on today without a sign of any concerted plan for ending the mounting bloodshed and destruction.

Arab rejection of the United Nations cease fire plea aroused grave concern among its delegates. The critical question: What will the next step be?

One anonymous spokesman for a big power delegation predicted the U.N. Security Council would take strong action. He said the organization had gone too far in its effort to bring peace to the Holy Land to back down now.

Strong action might include diplomatic and economic sanctions and even the sending of an international force to Palestine.

Warren R. Austin, the U. S. delegate at Lake Success, said the situation was so serious it required careful consideration of his government. The U. S. State Department has already sent about two dozen C-47 transport planes to Cyprus to evacuate American citizens from the Middle East in case the need arises.

The political committee of the Arab League in Amman informed the Security Council it would bargain over terms for ending the Palestine warfare. The committee gave the Council 48 hours to submit the terms.

END TESTIMONY IN FORRY CASE

The Adams county court at noon completed the taking of testimony in the action of Ethlyn A. Forry, Dallastown, against Paul E. Jacobs, East Berlin, and Charles Altland, now of West Virginia.

The trial started Wednesday morning in the regular court room and then moved to the law library where court was held again this morning.

With the completion of testimony, attorneys are now scheduled to request finding of facts and conclusions of law and a session of argument court will be held prior to the reaching of a final decision on the case. A jury was dispensed with in the case because of the involved mechanics of its procedure.

In general Mrs. Forry is claiming that Jacobs should pay off a $5,000 note made out to Charles Altland, Mrs. Forry's father, and transferred by Altland to Mrs. Forry. Jacobs claims that he is on $20,000 worth of notes for Altland and Lewis Jacobs, who were in partnership at one time in an ice business at Brunswick, Md., and claims that the $5,000 note against him should be cancelled out by the $20,000 in notes which is owed to him. Mrs. Forry, however, is claiming that she lent the $5,000 direct to Paul Jacobs and that therefore hers is a different note from the others and not involved in any way with them.

Nine Accused In Slaying Of Gandhi

New Delhi, May 27 (AP)—Nine men were formally accused in special court today of assassinating Mohandas K. Gandhi last January 30. They are scheduled to go to trial June 14.

Slouched on wooden benches in the prisoners' dock, the defendants chatted among themselves as a black-robed judge accepted a police charge sheet, accusing them of murder, conspiracy to murder and violations of the arms and explosives act. All these offenses are punishable by hanging.

N. V. Godse, who was seized allegedly with a smoking pistol in his hand, when Gandhi was shot down, asked along with five co-defendants, that the court provide defense counsel. Godse, an obscure Poona newspaper editor, is a thin-faced man with a pencil mustache.

SAYS 100,000 RED QUISLINGS THREATEN U.S.

Washington, May 27 (AP)—An American Legion leader told senators today "100,000 trained and seasoned quislings of the Communist front" now threaten the United States.

Paul Griffith, past National Legion commander, made the statement before the Senate judiciary committee. He asked speedy Senate approval of the House-passed Mundt-Nixon bill to curb Communists.

"We have today in our midst the largest fifth column of potential spies, saboteurs, demoralizers, traitors, and wreckers ever seen in modern times," Griffith said. He said the 100,000 "quislings are aided and protected" by an "estimated million or more fellow travelers and dupes."

Red "War Chest"
Griffith testified the Communist party is "collecting a war chest" of $500,000 in an attempt to defeat the Mundt-Nixon bill.

"Every fellow traveler, stooge and deluded dupe has been thrown into the line," he said.

As the three-day hearing opened, Chairman Wiley (R-Wis) ruled out "any political speeches"—by Henry Wallace or anybody else. Wallace, third party presidential candidate, has asked to testify against the measure.

Wallace has repeatedly blasted the House-passed measure. He is scheduled to appear before the committee Saturday. He said in Coeur D'Alene, Ida., last night:

"I am going to those hearings to uphold the old-fashioned, fundamental principle of free speech."

Wiley said he intended to see to it that the hearings do not provide an opportunity "for some folks to get political advertising." He also said the hearings "will not be turned into a three ring circus."

RESUME WORK ON U.S. ROUTE 30

Construction work on the Lincoln highway east of Chambersburg, shut down temporarily because the Pennsylvania Department of Highways advised the contractor that stone being used did not meet the state specifications, has been resumed.

A conference of contractors and representatives of the Pennsylvania Stone Producers Association, Inc., Harrisburg, was held Tuesday in the Department of Highways offices in Harrisburg.

Work was suspended last Saturday because the stone supply contained more than five per cent of flat stone. At the conference Tuesday it was decided that the interpretation which had been placed on the specification for stone was such that the state would have to revise its method of making tests.

The revision, according to H. H. Wagner, general manager of the stone producers association, increased the tolerance of permissible flat stone by 100 per cent. The work was resumed and future tests will be based on the new interpretation, Wagner said.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

It's Leap Year, Girls!

First girl in our town to "get her man" on Leap Year was the Cuppers' daughter, Jane, who wed Bill Webster's boy last Saturday.

When I asked Bill Jr. if it was true that Jane really did the proposing, Bill said: No, but she made it plain she'd make an ideal wife. Instead of looking for diversion or excitement every evening, she was content to chat beside the fire.

"I could plainly see," says Bill, "that we'd really have a happy home life—which is just exactly what I want from marriage."

I know it's usual for older folks to shake their heads over the younger generation. (It's gone on for hundreds of years, now.)

But from where I sit, young people of marrying age today are every bit as commendable as their elders were—in their temperance (a glass of beer for instance), tolerance, and common sense. So to Jane and Bill—the best of luck!

BRIDE IGNORING 62 PHONE USERS

Ripley, Me., July 27 (AP)—As a bride, Mrs. Charles Johnston, 57, is no more interested in running Ripley's telephone system than she was as Mrs. Winifred Hatch, a widow.

She and her new husband—he's 58 and had been her next-door neighbor 18 years—moved into Johnston's home yesterday. They were married at Cambridge, Me., Saturday night.

Mrs. Johnston, who cut the wires to her switchboard with a pair of shears a week ago last Thursday, explained: "They (the 62 subscribers of the Ripley Telephone Co.) were behind on their payments. It was too much for me to put my money into pay the bills."

Her decision left this community of 500 with a single phone—an emergency pay station installed by the New England Telephone and Telegraph Co., in the general store.

Two minority stockholders—Mrs. Johnston is principal owner of the little Ripley company—poiled the townfolk to see if they'd take New England service—if they could get it. All 62, and one other citizen, said yes, they reported.

But Mrs. Johnston and her husband are unconcerned about the town's telephone situation. They are busy planning a honeymoon—which will be delayed while Johnston helps a neighbor, Lee Brown, with his haying.

PAIR SLAYS MAN AND GETS NICKEL

Pittsburgh, Pa., July 27 (AP)—A 26-year-old dishwasher was held on a murder charge today following a robbery which Detective Sgt. Alex. Born said netted only five cents.

Born said 74-year-old Charles Ketter, the victim of a beating, helped bring about the arrest of Edward Egli, New Milford, N. J., with his dying gestures. Born gave this version:

Ketter was found barely conscious in the rooming house where he collected rent. Unable to talk, he held up two fingers—then scribbled "Dale" on a sheet of paper.

Police believed the two-finger gesture meant Ketter had been attacked by two men.

They picked up Egli, who was quoted by Born as saying: "I suppose you want me for what happened Friday night."

Born said questioning revealed Egli was an acquaintance of a man named "Dale." The officer said Egli signed a statement admitting he and "Dale" beat Ketter to death with their fists when he resisted their robbery attempts. A nickel fell from Ketter's pocket when he collapsed.

The detective sergeant said Egli furnished a description of "Dale" but efforts to locate him thus far have failed.

Water Company

buy the water company at all? What will we gain by purchasing it?" Winebrenner answered: "Boroughs that own their own water companies can generally provide water at lower rates, and the profits from the water company go to the borough. Littlestown, as an example, is paying for its sewer system by the profits from its water system. Other boroughs that own their own water companies find it possible to have lower tax rates, or are able to provide better services or have lower water rates. In some instances all three conditions hold true."

In answer to a question concerning profit and loss statements of the water company, the authority answered that it has those figures on file and that they are available for inspection.

Two $75,000 Questions

Answers were given to two $75,000 questions. To the first—"Why spend $75,000 for improvements?" the authority pointed out the $75,000 will provide two more rings on the standpipe, thus increasing the water available; will provide a 12-inch main into the north and western ends of the town, and the addition of a new engine at the pumping station. Such improvements will provide better service for the people of the town.

The other question involved the $75,000 in bonds to be set aside to guarantee performance by the seller as the operating manager. The bonds, it was pointed out, represent the profit that Ware expects to make on the sale. The bonds are held in escrow to guarantee that Ware and the managing company do their job. If they do not, he forfeits the profit.

Asked how the authority justifies the fact that the purchase price apparently will be higher than the actual value and that the $75,000 profit bonds bear the highest rate of interest of all of the bonds—Hoffman gave the answer that:

Pay Out Of Earnings

"These are conditions of the sale. And if the amount can be paid out of company earnings, without raising the water rates, then it does not matter, as I see it. It must be understood that Ware does not have to sell. It must also be understood that he does not want to sell outright. The entire scheme is designed to cut out federal taxes, and if we profit by the scheme; if we get the water company without having to pay one cent for it; if the people of the town are guaranteed to get the same service, or better service, and if the water rates are not increased, then it seems a sensible thing to take advantage of the offer. That Ware will make a profit on the transaction is beside the point, we make a profit too in that we get the water company. Ware's profit and ours will come from the amount that is going now to the federal government. In addition we gain immediately some control over the company which we do not have now."

Hoffman pointed out, in answer to several questions, that "in the proposed agreement submitted by Ware, it provides for a managerial contract for a certain period, or until the bonds are called. This contract is required by Ware and is on the same basis as reached with other authorities. We talked with other authorities and they agreed that the contracts were fair and urged us to set up an authority to purchase the company."

Details On Financing

The proposed agreement provides that the authority is guaranteed 10 per cent of the gross revenue. After all other operating and maintenance expenses and obligations, the Northeastern (Ware's company) will receive, if there is still sufficient money for it, 7 1/2 per cent of the gross revenue. It is not our worry if there is not enough money available. Northeastern does not get that 7 1/2 per cent. The other authorities tell us that the company has been able to make that 7 1/2 per cent and keep all of its other obligations. If there is any profit after all this, it will be divided equally between the authority and company."

It was pointed out that the borough gets its 10 per cent of the gross income regardless of profit or loss. If the company does not make sufficient income to pay all expenses, it must make up the deficiency and still pay the borough the ten per cent of gross.

The ten per cent will come to the borough free and clear to be used by the authority for retirement of bonds or improvements. Amortization and interest of the bonds issued by the authority is paid out of company income as part of the regular operating expenses. The ten per cent can be used by the authority as a fund to be spent to make improvements it may want to make to the water system, or it can be used by the authority to call some of the bonds. It was stated that if the authority wishes, and if the callability of the bonds permits, the entire cost could be paid off in less than the 40 years over which the bonds are amortized.

Authority Members Not Paid

All members of the authority are donating their services free of charge, so the borough will not have any expense in that matter, Hoffman pointed out.

Hoffman also added that "it was the school district of Tyrone township sold to Carl W. and Marguerite V. Dean, Tyrone township, the Five Points school lot in that township for $810,

All of us agreed that the callability of the bonds as to time and prices should be in direct relationship to the interest rate on the bonds and should be determined only after consultation with prospective buyers and possibly after the receipt of bids."

LONELY FATHER SLAYS HIS WIFE

Jeannette, Pa., July 27 (AP)—A father's loneliness for his three-year old son led to his arrest on Sunday in connection with the ambush slaying of his divorced wife, Police Chief Charles F. Walter said.

Walter said Franklin S. Robinson, 33, a railroad fireman, was seized on a murder charge. He was indicted by the January grand jury in the slaying of his former wife, Mrs. Frances Capone Robinson.

Mrs. Robinson died last December 5 after she had been felled by two bullets on a downtown street. Robinson had been missing since the shooting, Walter said.

The police chief said Robinson, in a signed statement, admitted he fired a gun at his wife. He quoted the railroad as saying: "I was nervous and despondent because I couldn't see my boy enough."

Under terms of the divorce Robinson could visit three-year old Jon Neil Robinson only one day a week. The lad is now being reared by his maternal grandparents.

Walter quoted Robinson as saying his wife's death. He returned to Pennsylvania in May, living at Greensburg and Altoona, Pa.

Edward Teichart Is Running Too

Pittsburgh, July 27 (AP)—With all the fuss over the Republicans, Dixiecrats and Wallace third party, Edward A. Teichart is just about the forgotten man of politics.

Teichart is running for president, too — on the Socialist Labor ticket. That is, it's the Socialist Labor presidential candidate's home state ticket everywhere except in the state of Pennsylvania. Here it will appear on the ballot as the Industrial government party because the better known Socialist party of Norman Thomas got the ballot first.

Teichart, who, when he isn't running for president, works as an assistant foreman in a Greensburg, Pa., electric equipment plant, claims his party dates back to 1876.

IDENTIFY DEAD

Wiesbaden, Germany, July 27 (AP)—The U. S. air force announced today two first lieutenants—Charles H. King of Britton, S. D., and Robert W. Stuber of Arlington, Calif., were killed in the C-47 transport plane crash in Berlin Saturday. The crash was the second fatal accident in the airforce's month-old task of feeding Berlin by air.

bert Shanebrook, Kenneth Eyer, and Carroll Reed, who was assistant to troop committee member, Luther D. Snyder, who was in charge of the trip.

The trip started at Severn creek which flows into the Severn river. They traveled on the Severn river to Annapolis. Considerable time was spent at the United States Naval Academy where they looked over ships in port. Among the ships seen was a flat-top aircraft carrier, a destroyer and a number of smaller ships.

In addition to canoeing, they enjoyed swimming and fishing. They also saw a bald eagle and a horse-shoe crab, both of which are rare in the Chesapeake territory. The scouts and their leaders camped out at night and did their own cooking.

Two Funerals Today

Francis Gerrick and Miss Helen Eyer were the leaders of the St. John's Lutheran church Christian Endeavor society on Sunday evening. The devotions consisted of a song service, the scripture lesson by Miss Marion Staveland and the Lord's prayer in unison. The topic was, "Why these should not be joined?" Miss Helen Eyer led the discussion. Included in the topic was a discussion on "the factors and requirements for making a happy home." The topic next Sunday evening will be, "Jesus Christ is Lord of All" and the leaders will be Miss Ruth Myers

The State Highway was given stiff opposition by the Stanton Legion but came up with five runs in the fourth inning to gain a 6-0 victory on the high school field.

George Fair pitched and batted his team to victory, connecting for a single, double and homerun.

Knox's Store kept pace with the Highway by also recording its fifth straight victory, 8-6 win over the Inductive nine in the opening game on the college field.

Felix and Redding formed the winning battery. The Acme climbed in the league standing by recording a 6-2 decision over Grandview in the second game on the college field.

Swisher and Little each collected three hits as the victors pounded out 12 safeties.

President Johnny Knox has announced a league meeting will be held June 11 at which time final rosters will be approved and forfeit money posted.

Eastern League

(By The Associated Press)
The Eastern League's first division was fairly well reorganized today after a couple of top-rung clashes.

The Scranton Miners remained well above ground at the head of the ladder, despite a 9-7 defeat at the hands of the Albany Senators, but the Senators thereby advanced to third place last night (Wednesday).

The Utica Blue Sox, meanwhile, gained clear title to the second rung by trimming Williamsport, 8-5.

Without altering the arrangement in the bottom half, Binghamton won 9-7 over Elmira and Hartford trounced Wilkes-Barre, 6-1.

Before the Christian era, a glove was given to the purchaser of land, taking the place of title and deed to the property.

Eddie Joost Sets Two Loop Records

Philadelphia, May 27 (AP)—Bespectacled Eddie Joost, sparkplug shortstop of the Philadelphia Athletics has set two American league records that were lost in the furore over the A's sudden rise to league prominence.

A look in the record books today revealed that Joost has cracked the American league marks for most consecutive errorless games in one season and most consecutive chances accepted without an error for shortstops.

The likeable native of San Francisco has not made an error this year in 31 games thus eclipsing by six the old record of 25 straight by Frank Crosetti of the New York Yankees, June 3-June 29, 1939, and tied by Joe Cronin of the Boston Red Sox, June 16-July 16, of that same year. Joost broke the mark in the A's 26th game last Friday at Detroit.

Joost, described by Connie Mack as his best shortstop since Joe Boley of the pennant winning Athletics of the early 30's, accepted 179 chances (71 putouts, 108 assists) without error during his record breaking spree.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.

St. Louis, May 27 (AP)—Baseball fans usually think of Ted Williams as a guy who isn't interested in anything but hitting—during a ball game, that is . . . but you can take it from an admiring teammate, Boo Ferriss that Ted's fielding ability has been greatly under-rated . . .

Ted has made himself into a lot better fielder than he is given credit for being, says Ferriss . . . "and don't overlook his throwing. Why, in Chicago he made one throw from deep left that was as good as any I ever saw" . . . Williams, known as a dead right fielder, has been crossing up the opposition on this western tour by hitting to left—whether by accident or intent is not known . . . after belting one homer into the right field upper deck of Chicago's Comiskey Park, against the wind, Ted almost hit a homer into left . . . and Tuesday night he hit a left-field double here, but that obviously was a handle hit.

FERRISS AND WARNER
Ferriss, who hasn't been burning up the league on the pitching mound this spring, still maintains that there's no particular hitter who treats him like a "cousin" . . . "of course, there's a fellow named Joe DiMaggio," Boo adds, with a smile, "he hits pretty good" . . . and as for Williams: "Well I'm glad he's on my side."

The best-ball card for the recent PGA tournament was 22-23—45, consisting of nine deuces and nine threes . . . think of what you could do with that in a poker game . . . passing through New York en route to the British amateur championship, Frank Stranahan, who confidently predicted he would win the title, called Freddie Corcoran to ask how he could get along better with British newspapermen . . . Freddie told him: "Treat your caddie right and don't say anything" . . . that's pretty hard to do, Corcoran admitted, if you get a caddie like one who once laid down Francis Ouimet's bag and stalked off the course because Ouimet disagreed with him on what club to use . . . even the PGA officials don't know it until Tuesday, but the 1949 Ryder cup matches definitely have been awarded to the Ganton golf club at Scarborough, Yorkshire, England.

The Ozark A.A.U. is having trouble getting the use of a pool here for the Olympic water polo tryouts in July because the local park board thinks it may be illegal to charge more than two bits admission . . . pitching duel this department would like to see, and probably won't, would be Yale's Frank Quinn against Marv Rotblatt of Illinois.

HOGAN FAVORED
AT FORT WORTH
Fort Worth, Tex., May 27 (AP)—The Colonial National Invitation, golf's all-expense paid junket for the stars, opens its third annual showing today with Ben Hogan, the game's fabulous pine knot, a weary but determined favorite.

Hogan, who played 212 holes at St. Louis in capturing the National PGA, was considered the man to beat as a field of 29 professionals and three amateurs moved out in the first 18 holes of the 72-hole tournament that reaches its close Sunday.

There was little rest for wee Ben, who flew in from St. Louis yesterday morning, snatched a few hours' sleep and then whipped around Colonial Country club's 6,635-yard course in one-under-par 69. "That St. Louis thing just got me into shape," Hogan grinned. But he rode on a motorized "go-cart" instead of walking the fairways after each shot.

Hogan, who has put $13,897.50 into the old sock this year to make him the runner-up in money won, will be after the $3,500 first prize for the third time. He won the other two tournaments with a one-under-par 279.

GIANTS RALLY TO NIP CARDS; A'S WIN AGAIN

By JACK HAND
(AP Sports Writer)
Life in the Polo Grounds is just a series of nightmares for Manager Eddie Dyer of the St. Louis Cards. As far as he's concerned they can bring back polo any day.

Dyer's latest experience was enough to try the patience of a saint. His league-leaders were rolling along last night behind a nice 7-2 lead with Howie Pollet, the unbeaten star of both leagues, doing the pitching. It looked like money in the bank.

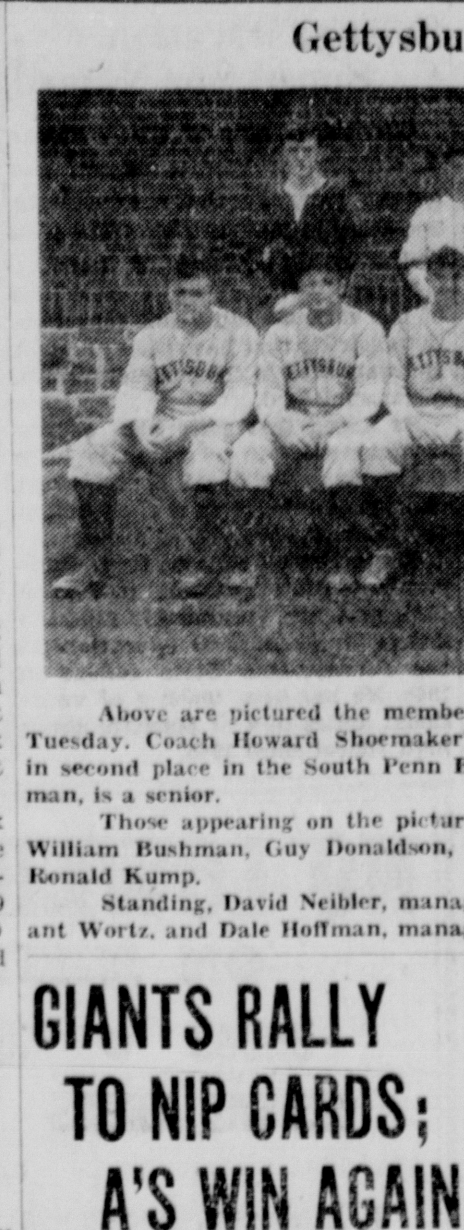

Then the Giants started to break out of their hitting slump. They hit and hit and hit some more. Before the eighth inning was over, eight runs had crossed the plate and the 7-2 lead had changed to a 10-7 deficit.

Still the Cards show the way with a 1½-game lead over New York, despite last night's disaster.

Across the river in Flatbush, Brooklyn customers were more concerned with immediate problems. Outfielder Pete Reiser and Catcher Bruce Edwards were lost for an indefinite period and the club blew another.

Back In Cellar
Shortly before midnight the Dodgers again plunged into the cellar as the result of their 4-1 loss to Chicago and Cincinnati's 8-5 win over Boston.

Hank Sauer's homer helped Cincinnati sneak out of last place. The Reds routed Warren Spahn, Boston's southpaw ace, to come from behind.

Chapman Shatters
34-Year Record
Sandwich, England, May 27 (AP)—Dick Chapman, poker-faced golf artist from North Carolina, wiped out a 34-year-old record today as he, Frank Stranahan of Toledo and Mario Gonzalez of Brazil reached the fifth round in the British Amateur Golf Tourney.

Chapman traveled the first nine holes of the Sandwich course in 29 strokes, to wipe out the mark of 31 blows set by Charles MacFarlane of Scotland against Chick Evans of Chicago in 1914. It was equaled by Gonzalez yesterday.

On the strength of his hot round, fashioned because he needed only 10 putts on the nine holes, Chapman defeated Hamilton McNally of Scotland, 9 and 7.

Stranahan eliminated James Taggart of Ireland, 5 and 3, while Gonzalez defeated Great Britain's Laddie Lucas, 2 and 1.

YORK ROSES STOP ROCKS
(By The Associated Press)
The Sunbury Reds moved to within one game of the Interstate League lead last night by defeating the Allentown Cardinals 9-1 behind the five-hit hurling of righthander Ray Haertker.

Haertker, combining an effective slider with good control, permitted only one hit in the last four frames. The victory was the third straight for the Reds.

The pace setting Wilmington Blue Rocks were turned back by the York White Roses 7-6. York blasted out 11 hits, including inside-the-park homers by leftfielder Bill Street and second sacker Jack Merson.

Gene Crumling, making his debut as manager of the Hagerstown Owls, led his charges to an 8-7 win over the Trenton Giants. "Pep" Rambert, who was banished for five days by league President Gerald Nugent after being tossed out of a game Tuesday, submitted his resignation, stating it was in the best interest of the club.

The Harrisburg Senators unleashed a six-run attack in the seventh inning to take a 9-6 win from the Lancaster Red Roses in the remaining contest last night.

Today's schedule: Sunbury at Wilmington, Hagerstown at Lancaster, York at Allentown and Harrisburg at Trenton.

Holiday Races At Williams Grove
Williams Grove, Pa., May 27—Veteran big car auto racing star, Vic Nauman, of Lebanon, turned in his entry today for the stock car races to be presented on both Sunday afternoon, May 30, and again Monday night, May 31, under sanction of the American Stock Car racing Association on Roy Richwine's half-mile Williams Grove Speedway.

Sunday's races will start immediately following time trials at about 2:15 p. m. Time trials will be eliminated for the races on Monday night which will mark the first night race of the season under the 300,000-watt lighting system, scheduled to start promptly at 8 p. m. With the elimination of time trials on Monday night, starting positions in the races will be determined by times established during Sunday's time trials.

Grenloch, N. J., May 27 (AP)—There will be no more training chores this week for Jersey Joe Walcott. A slight infection on his right foot will keep him from boxing and road work although Dr. Nicholas R. Musulin of Camden, N. J., said yesterday the challenger for Joe Louis, heavyweight crown could box if necessary.

Indianapolis, May 27 (AP)—Thirty cars were ready today to start in the 500-mile race at the Indianapolis motor speedway Monday.

Seven cars made their 10-mile qualifying runs yesterday to bring the lineup within three of the maximum starting field. The 34 unqualified cars remaining at the track have only Saturday left in which to try for positions.

New York, May 27 (AP)—Penn State is expected to be one of the major threats to New York university's title defense tomorrow and Saturday in the intercollegiate 4-a track and field championships at Randall's Island stadium.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 27 (AP)—Herb Roth, one of the nation's leading harness race drivers last year, was injured seriously last night in a sixth race accident at Buffalo raceway in nearby Hamburg.

Loumie, in fifth place as the 11-horse field made the first turn, broke and stepped into Roth's sulky behind Flashpoint. Roth was thrown as both horses went down. Two other horses also tumbled. Three other drivers were unseated. They escaped injury.

Rejects Coaching Offer At Carlisle
Jack Lewis, Minersville high school football coach, who was elected as successor to Clarence B. Hendrickson, Jr., at Carlisle high school on May 18, has rejected the $3,600 offer of the Carlisle school district and will remain at his present position.

Lewis' rejection came as a surprise in view of the fact that he had indicated he would accept the Carlisle post if a home could be found here for his family.

Argentine Boxer Is N.Y. Sensation
New York, May 27 (AP)—Alfredo Lagay, the Argentine light heavyweight champion now campaigning in the United States, and Manager Hymie Wollman have been creating something of a sensation in New York boxing circles.

Lagay wants to fight Ezzard Charles, the No. 1 contender for light heavyweight champion Gus Lesnevich's crown. Now few of the highrated heavies want to have any part of the Cincinnati clouter and Lagay's challenge has the boys along Larup Lane buzzing.

The squat, 185-pound South American, now too heavy to make the lightweight limit, has won all four of his fights in the U. S. His last triumph was a decisive conquest of Tommy Gomez, the highranking Tampa, Fla., heavy, on April 27.

Ste. Anne, mother of the Virgin Mary, made her livelihood making gloves—and is today the patron saint of gloves.

The Texas Lunch and State Highway, who will clash for the first time Thursday evening on the high school field, kept up their fast paces in the Community Softball League Monday evening by scoring victories on the high school field.

In the opener the Texas Lunch laced Knox's store 12-1 to greatly jeopardize the fourth place aspirations of the storemen. The lunchmen, paced by Ogden and Shoop who had perfect nights at bat, scored in every inning. Knox's store secured but two hits off the offerings of Bartholomew and Saylor.

With Frazer going "5 for 5," the State Highway pounded out 21 hits to hand the Moore a 17-2 drubbing in the nightcap on the high school diamond. Abe Hankey contributed a homerun for the roadmen. George and Ken Fair permitted the Moore but five hits.

The Acme pulled up into a tie with the Elks for fifth place by nosing out the Recreation Center 10-9 in the second game on the high school field. The Rec boys held an 8-3 lead at the end of four frames but the hard-hitting Acme outfit tabbed three runs in the fifth and then clinched the decision with four runs in the sixth. J. McLaughlin poled three hits for the Recreation Center and King homered for the Acme.

In another slugfest the VFW upset the Inductive nine 12-6 in the initial tilt at college.

Maroon Gridders To Meet Thursday

It is still mid-summer and baseball is at its peak but already football is becoming a popular subject and the first meeting to take over plans for the coming season is scheduled for Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock when Gettysburg high school candidates will gather in Room 107 at the high school building.

Coach George Forney has sent out cards to over 50 prospective candidates inviting them to the meeting. Included in the group are members of last year's varsity squad back for another season and all those who last spring indicated an interest in the sport. Others interested but who did not indicate interest last spring are also invited and urged to attend. The Maroons' initial grid game is carded for September 10.

MILLS UPSETS GUS LESNEVICH

By BILL MACKLIN
London, July 27 (AP)—Ring-scarred

Gus Lesnevich sails for home Friday minus the world light heavyweight championship and his once bright hopes of fighting for the heavy-weight crown.

Freddie Mills, beetle-browed Briton, scrambled Gus' future last night in a surprise upset. The former carnival clown won the 175-pound crown with a 15-round decision before the largest crowd ever to see a fight in England.

Promoter Jack Solomons packed 46,000 into White City stadium and grossed around $300,000.

Gus Downed Twice
Lesnevich, twice banged to the canvas and left with ugly gashes around both eyes, immediately announced he was discarding his heavyweight aspirations in favor of another shot at Mills.

Gus' manager, Joe Vella, said he had a contract for a return bout with the 29-year-old Briton. There was talk the fight, which would be the third between the two, might be staged in New York.

Lesnevich scored a tenth round knockout over Mills in 1946. This time, however, he failed to pack the same authority in his fists after taking off some ten pounds to make weight. He barely squeaked in at 174½ while Mills weighed 170½.

Mills is the first British champion in his weight since Philadelphia Jack O'Brien took the title from Bob Fitzsimmons in 1905.

BEN HOGAN IS READING WINNER

Reading, Pa., July 27 (AP)—"There's nothing like a little pressure to make a man play good golf," says little Ben Hogan, the Hershey, Pa., belter with the Texas twang.

The little pressure Hogan was talking about was just a matter of five strokes he trailed the field starting the final round Sunday in the $15,000 Reading Open.

Hogan, driving in his accustomed long style and chipping like a master, fired an eight-under-par 31-33-64 to overtake the pacesetter, Freddy Haas, Jr., New Orleans, La., and take down first place money of $2,600. He had a 72-hole total of 269.

Haas, only two years in the pro ranks, apparently hasn't learned how to take large galleries. He shared or held the lead through three rounds only to let temperament get the better of him when the chips were down. However, Haas picked up $1,900 for his second best effort.

Clayton Heafner, Charlotte, N. C., pro, had $1,400 third place money to buy his new baby girl lots of pairs of shoes. The burly Carolinian totaled 271. Demaret and South African Bobby Locke deadlocked for fourth money ($900 each) with 272's.

DODGERS ARE HUMBLLED BY LEO'S GIANTS

By JOE REICHLER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Lippy Leo Durocher rode triumphantly into the Polo Grounds today in his home debut as manager of the New York Giants with all the pomp and glory of a conquering hero.

No matter what Durocher does from now on, Giant followers will never forget what he did last night. Neither will the Flatbush faithful. In a setting knee deep in drama, the former pilot of the Brooklyn Dodgers returned to his old stamping grounds last night and watched his Giants club his former hirelings into almost total submission. The New Yorkers massacred their interborough rivals, 13-4.

It was sweet revenge for Giant fans who had seen their favorites humbled 32 times in 39 clashes at Ebbets Field over the last four years. It also was sweet revenge for Durocher, who was shipped across the river to the Giants only ten days ago.

Durocher Boosed
In all the Giants collected 17 base hits against five Dodger pitchers.

Durocher took an unmerciful boogie before the start of the game. Rarely has a manager or player been forced to accept such a shower of verbal abuse. It started the minute he poked his head out of the Giant dugout and lasted until the game got under way.

Cries of "kill the quitter," and "send the bum back to New York," were hurled at him.

The partial Dodger crowd of 33,932, all that could get into the park, didn't know it then, but that was the last chance it had to jeer Durocher and the Giants. Once the game got under way, it was Leo who had the laugh.

The victory, only the fifth in 13 meetings with the Dodgers this year, left the Giants still in fifth place, a half game behind the Pittsburgh Pirates. In losing, the Dodgers dropped a notch into the third place, a half game behind the St. Louis Cardinals and 5½ games back of the league leading Boston Braves.

American Leaders Clash
That was the only game played in the majors yesterday.

Today the five-team battle for the National league flag continues with Boston host to the Pirates in a night game, the Dodgers taking on the Cards at Ebbets Field, and the Giants clashing with the Cincinnati Reds at the Polo Grounds, under the lights. In another league night contest, Philadelphia meets Chicago.

The torrid four-team fight for the American league flag also resumes today with the pace-setting Boston Red Sox hoping to better their four percentage point margin over Philadelphia's Athletics at the expense of the Tigers at Detroit. The A's engage the third place Indians in Cleveland and the New York Yankees clash with the Browns in St. Louis. In the other game, Washington comes to grips with the White Sox at Chicago. All are night affairs.

Eastern League

(By The Associated Press)
Exhibition games attracted most of the attention in the Eastern league last night with the Scranton Miners and the Albany Senators winning their jousts with major league opponents.

In the only two league games played, the Hartford Chiefs trounced the Tigers, 10-2, at Williamsport to increase their lead over their fourth-place rivals to a game and a half, and the Wilkes-Barre Barons blanked the Binghamton Triplets, 11-0.

A ninth-inning home run by Ralph Atkins, with Maury Craft on base, gave the Miners a 6-5 exhibition victory over the Philadelphia Athletics before a crowd of 8,025 at Scranton. Seven runs in the first inning gave the Senators an 8-2 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates in a game called at the end of the sixth because of rain. The game attracted 6,518 fans.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, July 27 (AP)—Eddie Sawyer, the Phillies' new pilot, is only the second big league manager of the current crop who never played major league ball. All the others, except Joe McCarthy, had at least a few seasons in the big show. . . . Joe, it might be added is doing okay. . . . Whether McCarthy's Red Sox and Bert Shotton's Dodgers really are the sensations they've appeared to be in the past few weeks should be determined by the middle of August. . . . The Red Sox, who charged to the top with 12 straight victories in their home park, will be on the road—the Dodgers, who

Today's Talk

OUR INTENTIONS

We say of someone that "he means well." Well, that covers a great deal of ground. And it excuses a great deal, as well. We can make many a blunder with words, and even in acts, but if our intention is right we have gone forward and not backward.

Goethe once said: "The spirit in which we act is the highest matter. Action can be understood and again represented by the spirit alone. No one knows what he is doing while he acts; but of what is wrong we are always conscious."

More people, every day, are trying to do right rather than wrong, or we would be in a very bad way! The intentions of people, therefore, are usually headed in the right direction. We ought to think about this when we differ with others, and seek the fathom the spirit that urges others to think and act as they do.

We are prone to criticize people for what they say and what they do, without considering their sincere intentions. A tolerant and considerate attitude should always be ours. It would save many a misjudgment and erroneous decision on our part. Many an unhappy situation has been created by our failure to sense the intention of another person.

The statement by that early American statesman Henry Clay that he "would rather be right than President" is the one that has kept his fame alive. Many an aspirant for that high office since Clay's day could not say as much. He might have proved to be a poor President, but he proved himself anything but a poor aspirant. We ought to have a few more such!

Our good intentions are really what keep us on high ground. These intentions of ours may often prove wrong—but they are right while we think that they are right! It's the spirit in which we live, think, and do our work that counts most. The important thing is to make these intentions workable to some useful end. Otherwise they might just as well never have been at all.

It's action that makes the good intention alive and inspiring, and when enacted its result alone is the thing to be judged. An intention is merely a seed. Unless it is planted its life will never know the light!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Triumphant Moment"

BOY TREASURES

A little boy is one who brings into the home the strangest things. Which to discover he has thrilled. But keep his mother's bloodstream chilled.

Not knowing anything of germs, He'll gather turtles, frogs and worms, And proudly bring them home to show, As once did I so long ago.

The mother of a little boy Has terror blended with his joy, For in his pockets she may find Beetles and bugs of every kind.

All little lads through boyhood's term Love things that crawl and creep and squirm, And in their pockets cherish much That mothers cannot bear to touch.

3,000 SEE AGED BRIDE AND YOUNG FARMHAND WED

Brushton, N. Y., May 27 (AP)—A bride nearly a century old settled down today with the "young, strong man" she prefers to a pension.

It was a gay "fusterin'" wedding yesterday for tiny, crippled Mrs. Eliza Murray and 37-year-old Clarence McGee, even though her wedding ring cost only 50 cents.

The lanky farm hand and his bride spent their wedding night at her modest home in this rural northern New York village near the Canadian border. The day was a special holiday for the 500 residents, by proclamation of the mayor.

3,000 Spectators
McGee planned to fix a broken wheel on his buggy so that they could have a honeymoon ride.

They weren't doing any public kissing.

Three thousand spectators crowded in and around the little Methodist church in nearby Molira while McGee slipped the 10-cent-store ring on his bride's finger.

"I couldn't kiss her with all of these people lookin' on," he said bashfully.

Buggy Wheel Broke
There had been some trying circumstances.

First, the buggy wheel broke and they had to ride in a neighbor's automobile to the church.

Then they had to wait 12 minutes for the district superintendent to sanction the marriage. They sat in the car while the crowd milled about.

The Rev. Lewis McConnell, pastor, quieted the crowd with this admonishment: "This is just as sacred as if a queen were being married, or as if the richest persons in the world. Let us keep it that way."

Police Were There
State troopers kept order outside after the ceremony, as the couple made their way through rice and confetti.

Smoothing down her blue and white print cotton dress, the bride declared:

"I'm so happy. I never thought we would have a wedding like this."

McGee, who began courting her shortly after her first husband died last February had little to say.

Grant Jobless Pay To Ex-Vice President

Harrisburg, May 27 (AP)—Depriving a former vice president of the Piper Aircraft Corp., Lock Haven, of jobless benefits would be placing "a premium on lethargy and a penalty on initiative" the Unemployment Compensation Board of Review ruled.

At the same time, the board reversed a previous bureau decision and granted the claimant unemployment benefits. The claimant's name was withheld in line with board policy.

The board said the claimant who had been a vice president of the firm for 10 years, had resigned from his position at the company's request when work became slack due to a curtailment of war orders.

The claimant then took an insurance training course at Hartford, Conn., the board said, but added that he had indicated "he was at all time ready and willing to accept employment."

LEWIS BLOCKS UMW BARGAINING

Charleston, W. Va., May 27 (AP)—John L. Lewis' refusal to sign a non-Communist affidavit under the Taft-Hartley act is threatening the position of his United Mine Workers' district 50 as bargaining agent for 4,000 DuPont employees near here.

State Director Joe Joy of the CIO Chemical Workers union said yesterday the National Labor Relations Board had ordered a new collective bargaining election at the Belle, W. Va., plant of E. I. DuPont de Nemours and company. He said the NLRB order specified that district 50, bargaining agent at the plant since it won an election two years ago, would be excluded from the new ballot.

The NLRB order pointed out that dist. 50—Lewis' catch-all organization for workers outside the mining industry—has not complied with certain provisions of the Taft-Hartley act, and "therefore we shall not place district 50 on the ballot."

The election, which must be held within 30 days, will offer a choice of the CIO group, no union, or the Association of Chemical Employees—an independent union which represented the workers before the UMW was certified as bargaining agent.

Section 9H of the Taft-Hartley act provides that unions may not use the facilities of the NLRB—including the right to appear on ballots in collective bargaining elections—until their officers have filed affidavits to the effect that they are not Communists.

CZECHS DENY BENES REPORT

Prague, Czechoslovakia, May 27 (AP)—The Czech government denied today a report from abroad that President Eduard Benes is gravely ill and not expected to recover.

To the contrary, an information ministry spokesman said, the 64-year-old president walked with his wife in the garden of their country home last night and appeared to be in a happy mood.

Another informant here, who cannot be identified by name, said, however, that the president's doctors are taking every precaution to prolong his life.

The information ministry spokesman, Arnost Limbersky, said he had "official information" that Benes' condition is no worse now than it has been at any time since he suffered a stroke last fall. (The reports from abroad said Benes had suffered another stroke since then and also is afflicted with hardening of the arteries.)

An official Czechoslovak diplomatic source in London said yesterday that Benes was gravely ill and not expected to live. Limbersky said that was false.

DEADLOCK AT LONDON TALKS SEEMS BROKEN

By ALEX SINGLETON
London, May 27 (AP)—A six-nation deadlock over western Germany's future was broken today and negotiators appeared headed for full agreement on setting up a provisional German government.

Diplomatic officials said the break—in an economic impasse—came last night when the delegates concurred on broad powers for an international control board over the mineral resources of the Ruhr.

The deadlock, caused by French objection to the plan for reshaping western Germany's future, had threatened to cause failure of the talks—involving the United States, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

Concerned About Security
Informants said France agreed to the Ruhr International Authority for control over allocations of iron ore, coal and coke after the United States made concessions on French demands that safeguards be set up against possibility that expanded German production might be used as a war potential. The chief concern of France—twice ravaged by war with Germany in 25 years—has been for her own security.

Last night's agreement was reached after British Secretary Ernest Bevin intervened. Bevin conferred Tuesday with U. S. Ambassador Lewis W. Douglas, chief of the American delegation, and Rene Massigli, French ambassador and head of the French delegation.

The British secretary was reported to have advised the American and French delegates to compromise, on the ground that the deadlock might jeopardize both the European recovery program and the future of the western European alliance among Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

The French are expected to withdraw their objection to the creation of a provisional German government starting with a constituent assembly on or about Sept. 1.

Pennsylvania's 28 Republican congressmen yesterday voted with the majority as the House approved a one-year extension of the Trade Agreements Act. The five Democratic members from the Keystone state opposed the measure.

Soil Conservation Supervisor Named

Harrisburg, May 27 (AP)—Oscar A. Kimmel, of Mechanicsburg, was named today by State Agriculture Secretary Miles Horst as state supervisor of soil conservation districts.

Kimmel will supervise activities of the various county soil conservation districts that have been and will be established in the commonwealth, Horst explained.

He added that since 1945, county commissioners in 18 counties have set up county-wide soil conservation districts. Latest to take such action are York and Warren counties.

Kimmel was graduated from Shipensburg State Teachers' college in 1934, and was granted his master's degree in agricultural education at the Pennsylvania State college in 1945. He has been teacher of vocational agriculture at Mechanicsburg high school since 1946.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Adams County Boys Left On Thursday: The Adams county company was mustered in on Wednesday evening about 9 o'clock, in Center Square, by Capt. Taylor, in the presence of an immense crowd of citizens and friends, after which he dismissed them with orders to be ready to leave on the 6:20 p. m. train the next day.

On Thursday morning Capt. Russell took charge of the "Boys." At 2 o'clock in the afternoon the captain received orders to move the company on a special train at 4 o'clock. At 3:30 the boys reported in Center Square, and after roll call they were addressed by Judge Swope.

The ladies who had kindly volunteered to prepare a lunch for each of the boys to take along, deserve great credit. Each man, in addition to the lunch, was presented with a towel and a cake of soap. They were then escorted to the depot by a band and drum corps and an immense crowd of citizens amidst the ringing of bells, blowing of whistles and firing of cannon. All the business places were closed during the hours of 3 and 4 o'clock.

The company will be known as Co. M, and is attached to the 5th Pa. Vol. Inf., stationed at Chickamauga.

Those from Gettysburg are listed below:

Frank A. Beitler, Harry J. Butt, Samuel M. Bushman, John B. Cope, Asa C. Cullison, John E. Currens, Wm. P. Dally, James F. Diehl, Wm. L. Fenstermacher, William L. Homan, Frederick W. Kapper, Urban Keime, Curtis W. King, George E. Kime, Wm. J. Koch.

Oscar B. Kreider, Harry G. Lott, George A. Martin, Robert B. McClean, James W. McDannell, James G. McIlheny, Wm. J. Noll, Wm. B. Robinson, John F. Ruimel, Robert S. Schriver, George E. Shields, Wm. M. Steffy, Joseph B. Stonessier, Frederick M. Tate, Frank X. Weirick, Charles R. Welty, Maurice Williams, James Wise.

Wm. F. Yeagy, Charles T. Ziegler, George H. Roth, New Oxford; Ralph T. Sandoe, Biglerville.

Among the appointments made are: 2nd Sgt., Robert B. McClean; 3rd Sgt., Wm. M. Steffy; 4th Sgt., Maurice Williams; cook, Wm. L. Homan; asst. cook, William F. Yeagy.

The bass drum used to escort the company to the station was played with great vigor and precision by Chas. B. Tate. It did a similar service in '61 when Capt. Chas. H. Buehler's company, which was the first to leave town, went to the front.

As the boys were getting on the cars, Mrs. Wm. Arch McClean presented the company with a handsome flag.

David McClary presented his fine bull terrier to the boys as their mascot.

Basely Deceived: The Gettysburg company, which has been drilling faithfully for weeks under Mr. Harvey F. Buehler, has been sent to Chickamauga Park. That it did not go under an Adams county captain and with a full quota of Adams county men was not due to Mr. Buehler or to any one connected with the company. The responsibility for both unfortunate conditions rests with Governor Daniel H. Hastings and his adjutant general, Thomas J. Stewart, though chiefly with the latter, we take it.

As Judge Swope in his farewell remarks to the boys, referred to the first company leaving Gettysburg in '61, under Captain Charles H. Buehler, more than one person in that throng found it hard to refrain from crying out: "And his son ought to be leading this one!"

(At one time General Stewart told Mr. Buehler that they were willing to give him a commission as captain if he could succeed in having the physical disabilities removed by the War Department.)

Local Miscellany: On Wednesday the Hanover Drum Corps was in town, cheering our boys up. Thanks for the serenade.

GUEST BOOK OF THE PAST

I have been watching a bird build its nest in which to rear its young, thus fulfilling nature's one continuous urge—to build, to breed, and thus to pass on its life. How quiet and watchful are those eyes as they sit, day after day, upon the newly laid eggs. Then the tiny fledglings appear and the mother bird comes with food, and then rapidly flies away to hunt some more.

Then, very soon, the feathers appear, the wings are shaped, and soon there is an empty nest. Like that is all life. Here today, but gone tomorrow. Memories alone remaining. The little tots who grace our homes are all too soon in full feather—and fly away, like the birds, then, to take up a home—nest—and the process of life goes on. In memory alone have they left their signatures—in vacant chairs, in tucked away toys and trinkets, and echoes of laughter.

Before me, as I write, are vacant chairs each one clustered with memories of those who have once talked, joked and reminisced. Guests in the book of the past. Voices once, but now only silence. "A little work, a little sweating, a few brief, flying years . . . a futile search for El Dorado, and then we say Good Night." It's that brief.

In one of the drawers of the bureau in my home are several little shoes, hardly four inches long. Now the one who once wore them is a young man upon a battleship somewhere in the Mediterranean, or Atlantic. For how brief a stay are these guests of ours, blood of our blood, as well as those with whom we have intimately associated, loved, and lost, though not in memory.

How futile is fame, the attainment of distinction, or the gain of great wealth. Love, kindness, usefulness—each only for a little while. Then the helm to another to carry on. Where are the "snows of yesterday?" They are in the raindrops that fall upon the roof of this small cabin where I now write among the pines and hemlocks. Tomorrow my newspaper says there will be "sunshine!"

Just so. Let it be, while I turn another page and read again in the guest book of the past—which is my heart.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Tongue."

SUMMER COTTAGE QUIET

'Twas for quiet that I came to the cottage by the lake.

"You are weary," said the doctor, "and a rest you ought to take. You should leave the crowded city with its ceaseless stress and strain.

Go where worry cannot find you, and you'll soon be well again."

'Twas for quiet that I came. I remember that advice. For I fancied the suggestion, since it sounded rather nice. Now a most unearthly screaming has me suddenly awake, And I think somebody's youngster has just fallen in the lake.

At dawn the crows start cawing, and at eve the whip-poor-will Lashes Willie with a racket neither law nor pleas can still. And when it's time for swimming all the children race the stairs, And they bang the doors, departing, in the rapture that is theirs.

Oh, I wonder if that doctor who had ordered me away To a lakeside summer cottage ever went a month to stay? "It is quiet you are needing," were the words he said to me. Were a summer cottage quiet, what a dismal place 'twould be!

PRICE OF MILK TO BE BOOSTED

Harrisburg, July 27 (AP)—A statewide boost of one or two cents a quart to an all-time high in the price of milk in Pennsylvania by mid-August appeared almost a certainty today.

The state Milk Control Commission, faced with a threat of depleted supplies, said today it is considering drafting tentative orders raising both the wholesale and retail prices to meet out-of-state competition.

"The first mandate the commission has is to assure an adequate supply of pure and wholesome milk for the public," commented John J. Snyder, commission members, to a reporter. "To do that, it is no longer a question of a raise in price, but how much."

The commission already has held price hearings throughout the state with the final one slated for Pittsburgh August 3. Testimony at all the hearings, Snyder said, indicated that costs of both producers and dealers are still going up.

But the big factor in the present milk crisis, he said, is the wholesale price already fixed by federal authorities in the New York and other metropolitan areas, effective Aug. 1.

New York dealers, who take 25 percent of Pennsylvania's milk production now, will start paying $6.10 a hundred pounds (4 1/2 quarts) for milk four per cent butterfat content on Aug. 1. The Pennsylvania minimum wholesale price for the same milk is 60 cents less or 1 1/2 cents a quart lower retail.

Huge Plane Crosses Nation In 10 Hours

July 27 (AP)—The Constitution, biggest airplane ever to cross the country, did it in 10 hours and 19 minutes Sunday.

The 184,000-pound giant, second of two built by Lockheed aircraft as naval transports, flew a 2,600-mile course from Moffett Field, Calif., at an average speed of about 280 miles an hour.

The plane had the help of tail winds ranging from 20 to 50 miles an hour at 19,000 feet. Some time was wasted dodging thunderstorms between Omaha and Chicago and flying low over Washington National airport and nearby Andrews, Md., air base.

The Constitution will be flown to Washington Thursday and remain until next Monday, when it will be taken to Idlewild airport at New York for several days. After that it will be brought back here and then flown back to California for completion of tests before being accepted by the navy.

pleted two years of teaching in June. He was the first in the county. He has accepted a position as vocational agricultural teacher in the Williamsport, Md., high school.

"Justified Its Cost"

"I can see no yardstick by which we can measure the value of the GI program at the present time," Mr. Scott said. "How well the program succeeds will be measured by the success of these men in agriculture in this county in later years. I feel, however, that the program has more than justified its cost."

Mr. Scott stressed record-keeping as one of the major projects of the course, and declared that this alone was worth the cost of the program. Better land use, soil conservation, farm management, farm planning and farm shop repair work were among other highlights of the program as explained by Mr. Scott.

Mr. Scott originated in the GI classes the farm machinery cooperative. Under this plan, groups of GI's purchased farm equipment which they shared in using on their farms. The cooperative, according to Richard C. Lighter, vocational education advisor, is the only one in the state.

The board was informed that Marilyn L. Rook, a former vocational agricultural teacher at East Berlin, and a candidate for the vacancy created by Mr. Scott's resignation, would be unable to accept the position. Mr. Lighter said he had taken a position as vocational agriculture teacher at Carlisle.

News Of Emmitsburg And Vicinity

Town May Receive New Street Lights

Emmitsburg may soon have a new street lighting system, it was learned today.

A survey of the town's needs is being made by the Potomac Edison company and the company expects in the near future to begin rearrangement of the street lights. Presently the company is planning to change the street lights from the suspension type which places the lights in the center of the street, to a pole type, which would be fastened by brackets to poles and throws

Paul Keepers Is Town Policeman

Paul Keepers has been named as police officer for Emmitsburg Borough, Burgess Thornton Rodgers announced today. Patrolman Keepers was sworn in on Tuesday and began his duties immediately.

A printer at St. Joseph's college, the new policeman will work mostly in the evening and nights, but will be on call if needed during the day. Its light over the sidewalk. The work will not be completed at once, the company said, due to manpower and equipment conditions.

VFW Home Will Reopen Saturday

The Emmitsburg Veterans of Foreign Wars post is planning to reopen its home Saturday after it had been closed for about 10 days while extensive renovations were being made.

Asphalt tile flooring has been laid in the barroom and kitchen of the home and new cabinets have been placed in the kitchen. New storage places have been constructed and fluorescent lighting is being installed in the lounge.

New metal and leather furniture has been installed throughout the home. Present plans call for the renovations to be complete in time for the reopening Saturday.

Most Street Repair Work Is Completed

Workmen have practically completed repairs to the borough-maintained streets of Emmitsburg and have constructed a public parking ground adjoining the shoe factory building. The only work remaining in the repair of streets is some hand work on repairs in alleys, Burgess Thornton Rodgers said. He also reported that the "clean-up" held by the borough today appeared to be successful.

The town sponsored a clean-up day today during which trash placed in alleys by the residents was picked up and hauled away for dumping.

BUSY CONGRESS MAY IGNORE S.S. PLEA BY TRUMAN

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, May 27 (AP)—This is a boom time for most of the country. But it's a time of bust for a lot of people too old to work.

President Truman yesterday asked Congress to do a number of things about increasing social security benefits.

But Congress, busy with other things, is unlikely to do much, if anything, about Mr. Truman's request.

There is room here to go into only those social security benefits which affect retired workers and their dependents. In 1935 Congress decided workers should get some protection when they become too old to work, and so should their dependents if the worker dies.

Taxed One Percent

So in that year, 1935, Congress passed the Social Security Act. It went into effect in 1937. This has been happening ever since: An employee is taxed one per cent up to $3,000 of his pay a year. And an employer is taxed one per cent up to $3,000 of each of his employees' pay a year.

That money goes into the social security, old age and survivors' insurance fund. There is now about $9,500,000,000 in that fund. Payments from the fund are running about $466,000,000 a year.

The most a retired worker can collect is $44.80 a month. In some kinds of work—like farming—the workers are not covered, so neither are missionaries. About fifty witnessed the showing.

Mrs. John Felix is visiting with her uncle, Albert Gelwicks at Pittsburgh, Pa.

they nor their employers pay a tax. Which means such a worker can't get any old age insurance.

20,000,000 Not Covered

But most workers are covered and pay the tax—about 32,000,000 of them. About 20,000,000 are not covered.

Who gets the insurance? It goes like this for a covered worker:

1. Retired workers, men and women who have reached 65.

2. An additional monthly benefit for a retired worker's wife, if she is 65, and for his unmarried children under 18.

If the worker under or over 65 dies, monthly benefits go to:

1. His widow if she's 65 or over.

2. His widow of any age if she has dependent children under 18 in her care.

3. Unmarried children under 18.

4. His parents if they were chiefly dependent on him and he left no widow or children.

But President Truman pointed out that the maximum retirement insurance—$44.80—was fixed back in 1939 when living costs were 70 per cent lower than they are now.

Asks Bigger Payments

Mr. Truman emphasized that even so the average monthly payment to a retired worker now is not $44.80 a month but only $25. (That's because of the low salary he made and therefore the low tax he paid.)

Since living costs have risen about 70 per cent since 1939, the 1939 dollar now is worth only about 58 cents. So that average $25 monthly insurance check the worker receives now has shrunk to $14.50 in 1939 terms.

Mr. Truman asked Congress to increase the social security pay-

Since my great sorrow fell
The shock that I received that day I still remember well.

CATTLE—Monday's salable supply of cattle included around 300 head over from last week but it was still the smallest Monday run in three weeks. It was also a little smaller than the count for the same period in 1947.

Supplies included the equivalent of about 10 head slaughter steers and 5 head stock sold. Trading was rather slow and very uneven on all classes except hogs despite the fact receipts were lighter.

Slaughter steers consisted mainly of grassy offerings with very few lots of fed cattle on hand. Prices ranged from fully steady to as much as $1 lower compared with last Thursday.

Common and medium grassy offerings made the sharpest declines. A few lots and loads of high good and choice grain-fed on the grass and fed steers and yearlings sold at $12-13.50. Most of the high-medium to average-good grade offerings brought $10.75-13.50; common to low-medium, $2-3.00.

Cows also met a very uneven market at fully steady to as much as $1 lower prices compared with late last week. Good cows were noted at $22-25.50 while most of the common and medium cows cleared at $19-21.50, a few medium cows early $22. Canners and cutters brought $18-18.50. Strongweight cutters reached $19 and odd head shelly canners sold down to $14.

Bulls sold on a mostly steady basis but there was a weak undertone and odd sales were on the lower side. The day's top of $28.50 was paid for a pair of good grain-fed yearling beef bulls. Other good beef bulls ranged down to $27. Good sausage offerings bulked at $24 and odd head shelly canners sold down to $14.

UNCLE SAM HAS
TEN PAGES ON
STRANGE POTION

By CHARLES MOLONY
Washington, May 27 (AP) — Want to whip up a mystery potion?
The commerce department has the recipe for one that's so mysterious the department itself doesn't know what it is.
Nevertheless, the department's office of technical services today offered a 10-page report on it for sale at $1 per copy.
The report, said the formal announcement, describes "a process for the photochemical chlorination of propane to dichloropropane and the subsequent dehydrochlorination of this intermediate to allyl chloride."
"The Process," added the report, "is based on the following reactions:
"C₃H₈ (propane) plus Cl₂ (chlorine) plus light goes into C₃H₇Cl (chloropropane) plus HCl (hydrogen chloride).
"C₃H₇Cl (chloropropane) plus Cl₂ (chlorine) plus light goes into C₃H₆Cl₂ (dichloropropane) plus HCl (hydrogen chloride).
"C₃H₆Cl₂ (dichloropropane) plus heat goes into C₃H₅Cl (allyl chloride) plus HCl (hydrogen chloride).
A reporter called the technical services office.
What would you get, he asked, if you mixed up a batch of this light heat, and other stuff — a cake, some soap, an A-bomb or what?
"Darned if we know," said the T. S. office, explaining that it got the report from a private industry man it sent to Germany to investigate wartime chemical research there.
The German scientist who "relayed the information" to the American investigator did so "from memory," the announcement admitted.
"For this reason," it warned buyers, "the accuracy of the data may be questionable."

State Board May
Cut Compromises

Harrisburg, May 27 (AP) — Chairman Frederick T. Gelder of the State Liquor Control Board said today money compromises of liquor license suspensions "have all been by a majority of the board."
"Tightening up on enforcement can be done by a simple motion not to grant any more compromises and I haven't seen anyone that has been ready to propose that," Gelder said.
He made the comment on a proposal of board member Charles C. McGovern that the three-member board adopt a new policy of requiring all suspended licensees to remain closed for at least half of the suspension period.
In addition, McGovern proposed that signs bearing the words "Closed for statutory violations by order of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board" be posted on the premises of licensed places under board suspension.

North Adams, Mass., May 27 (AP) — Employees of the Gale Shoe company made it possible today for their employer to purchase new machinery to obtain new business and resume operations suspended a week ago. The employees voted yesterday to go without paid vacations which would have cost the company about $25,000.

Sir William Johnson was rewarded by George of England for his services in the French and Indian War. The reward was a baronetcy, the first and only one granted on American soil, which occupied large areas of what is now northern New York state.

DEMOCRACIES TAKE INITIATIVE IN BERLIN CRISIS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

Widespread speculation that a parley of the Big Four Foreign Ministers (America, Britain, Russia and France) may be held to try to settle the Berlin crisis has been accompanied by a decided hardening of the western allies' attitude towards the Bolshevik aggression.

The democracies are maneuvering for position in the rapidly developing showdown. They are exemplifying their declaration that they are willing to negotiate but they won't do it under coercion. The attempted coercion in this instance is the brutal food-blockade of the civilian population of western Berlin.

Yesterday the United States and Britain handed Russia a dose of her own medicine by banning movement of trains to and from the Russian zone of Germany. American officials said "technical difficulties" caused the stoppage, thus repeating the excuse used by the Reds in imposing their blockade.

Ready To Use Force

Furthermore America and Britain are expanding their already huge air services for transport of food and fuel to save the 2,400,000 inhabitants of the democracies' zones. And these old allies are reported ready to defend this service of mercy with force if the Bolsheviks attempt to interfere by force.

What must be the last straw for Moscow, however, is the announcement that the military governors and German political leaders of the three western zones of the Reich have reached final agreement for a unified government of that area, which includes the rich and all-important industrial Ruhr. The Muscovites have fought this program tooth and nail, while refusing to join in creating a government for all Germany. The Russians of course are scheming to absorb Germany into the Soviet bloc and thus pave the way for conquest of the whole of Europe.

Door Is Open

Still, the democracies are leaving the door open for Russia to pool their zone with the other three and make a unified Germany. At the same time rumors have been circulating in Berlin and London that there may be a new conference of the Big Four Foreign Ministers.

There even is speculation again that President Truman and Marshal Stalin might meet to try to iron out the crisis. Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross says Mr. Truman hasn't received any official proposal for such a meeting and his position continues to be that he would be glad to welcome Stalin in Washington but has no intention of leaving America for such a conference.

Truman Asks

like steel and meat.

Even before he spoke, GOP leaders made clear that Mr. Truman could pin no real hope for action on more than one or two minor points in his message.

Urges Housing Bill

The Chief Executive hit hardest at the rising cost of living. But he led off by saying that another crying need is for more and cheaper housing.

So he called again for passage of the Taft-Ellender-Wagner bill to meet the "acute" housing shortage.

"This is the bill we need," he said. "We need it now, not a year from now."

In addition to selective price-wage controls and a return to the wartime excess profits tax at a rate he did not disclose, the president asked Congress to:

Other Demands

1. Restore consumer credit controls — such as those which specified down payments and the time in which installment purchases had to be paid off.

2. Arm the Federal Reserve board with more power to regulate "inflationary bank credit."

3. Grant him power to regulate speculation on the commodity exchanges.

4. Grant him power to impose allocation and inventory control over "scarce commodities which basically affect essential production or the cost of living," the same term he used for his price control proposal.

5. Strengthen controls over rent with adequate appropriations for enforcement to prevent "further unwarranted rent increases."

6. Give him standby power to ration "those few products in short supply which vitally affect the health and welfare." He said that unless further shortages occur, this authority "might not have to be used at all."

"A Balanced Way"

The president asked authority to limit wage increases only where they would "force a break in a price ceiling." Even in this instance an exception would be made if the increases were "essential to remedy hardship, to correct inequities or to prevent an actual lowering of living standards."

Contending that industry has boosted prices in many recent cases where profit margins were "adequate" to absorb the increased labor costs, the president added: "Rising wages and rising standards of living, based on increasing productivity and a fair distribution of income is the American way. Non-inflationary wage increases can and should continue to be made by free collective bargaining."

As for his entire eight-point cost of living program, Mr. Truman called it a "balanced" way to attack high prices. All eight points, he said, are "necessary to check rising prices and safeguard our economy against the danger of depression."

No Reference To Russia

Aside from his reference to Communists here and abroad counting on an American depression, Mr. Truman made no direct reference to this country's strained relations with Russia.

But he did assert that: "In these tense days, when our strength is being tested all over the world, it would be reckless folly if we failed to act against inflation."

The president devoted only a single paragraph in his 3,000-word address to "urge upon Congress" the controversial civil rights program he sent to Capitol Hill last February.

He did not specify priority for any of the proposals, but a "score card" made public at the White House yesterday placed emphasis on anti-poll tax and anti-lynching bills on which hearings already have been held.

Signed FFP Order

The civil rights proposals, Mr. Truman said, "are necessary to carry out the American ideals of liberty and justice for all."

The president signed executive orders late yesterday establishing a fair employment practice policy for Federal employees and calling for an end to racial discriminations in the armed services.

As he had said he would, the Chief Executive also asked the special session for:

Okay On Wheat Pact

1. A new displaced persons bill to provide for the admission of some 400,000 of Europe's war refugees into this country during the next four years, instead of 202,000 in two years as provided in a bill passed at the last session. He asked that Congress wipe out "discriminations" in the current law. He has said it would operate unfairly against Jewish and Catholic displaced persons.

2. A Federal-aid-to Education bill to provide $300,000,000 annually to states for education.

3. Approval of a $65,000,000 loan for the construction of a permanent United Nations headquarters in New York City.

4. Senate ratification of the International wheat agreement. He said this would "guarantee American farmers an annual export market of 185,000,000 bushels of wheat at a fair price (a maximum of $2 a bushel) during the next five years."

5. Restoration of $56,000,000 trimmed from proposed appropriations at the last session for power and reclamation projects, including a Tennessee Valley Authority steam generating plant at New Johnsonville, Tenn.

6. A "more equitable and realistic" pay bill for Federal employees.

7. A bill raising the present 40-cent minimum wage to "at least 75 cents an hour."

8. Legislation increasing "by at least 50 per cent" the benefits under the old-age retirement provisions of the social security law. He said the age at which women can receive benefits should be lowered from 65 to 60 years, and he again asked extension of coverage to groups not now included.

She also read an invitation from one of the vice presidents of the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women to be present at exercises which the Flag Day Association of Philadelphia will present on June 12.

She called attention to the club Scrapbook which Mrs. C. H. Heldt had been in charge of the past year and which was open for examination at the meeting. Mrs. Raymond F. Sheely and Mrs. P. J. McGlynn were appointed to assist Mrs. Heldt with the work next year.

MANY READY TO WED GIRL WHO WANTS $10,000

Hempstead, N. Y., May 27 (AP)—An attractive hat check girl who announced she would marry the man who'd ante up $10,000 cash and support her and her two children had a sizable list of takers today.

The 28-year-old divorcee—Mrs. Dorothy Lawlor—got 14 quick telephone replies yesterday after her offer appeared in the Hempstead Newsday.

But she wouldn't say "yes" immediately to any of the applicants. She'll look each of them over before hat checking duties at a Long Island night club, she said.

The comely blonde opined, however, she'd have to make a decision within a week because "I have just enough money to last me that long." "I want a $10,000 cash settlement immediately, but the guy's got to have more Jack than that, let's more. I'm looking for just one thing: money, money, money."

She conceded her price was "plenty high."

The newspaper published the story of her offer after rejecting this advertisement submitted by Mrs. Lawlor for the "situation wanted, female" classified columns:

"Wife for sale. Divorcee, blonde, attractive wants man to marry and support her and two children. Must be willing and able to make immediate $10,000 cash settlement."

DRAWINGS IN SWEEPSTAKES BEGIN TODAY

Dublin, May 27 (P) — The total prize money in the Irish Hospital Sweepstakes on the English Derby was announced as 444,200 pounds ($2,576,800) as the drawing began today.

That total—the smallest since the war—was sufficient to make up eight units of prize money. This compares with 16 units in the sweepstakes on the Grand National last March.

Holders of tickets on the winning horse will get 25,000 pounds ($100,000) on the second horse 10,000 pounds ($40,000) and on the third horse 5,000 pounds ($20,000).

Eight units means that there will be eight tickets worth 25,000 pounds. The tickets cost the purchaser 10 shillings ($2).

The original entry list for the derby to be run at Epsom Downs June 6 was 386 horses and on the first acceptance this was cut to 125 horses.

U. S. Winners Last Year
Names of all 125 horses will be drawn in the sweepstakes. Only 36 horses were left after final acceptance yesterday and many will not run. However a holder of any ticket drawn gets a prize, although the sum is much less for non-runners.

Introduced on the platform on which the numbers were being called were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ersek, of Cleveland, Ohio. Ersek held a ticket on Sheida's Cottage in the Grand National sweepstakes in Britain and is visiting in Erie while on his trip to collect his $25,000 (100,000) prize.

Ersek is an upholsterer. He and Mrs. Ersek were married May 12. He said he expects to use his prize money to build a home and buy an automobile. The Erseks plan to return to the United States June 3.

The total prize fund has declined, probably because of the difficulty in selling tickets in the United States and Britain—previously the big supporters of the sweepstakes—and getting currency to the winners. Anti-lottery laws have erected those barriers.

knows, has not been made available to Gettysburg.

Local Lincoln students have long wanted to secure the statue, whether money from the Houck estate is available or not, and place it in the square. They also visualize concealed lights to illuminate the statue at night.

Our suggestion to Burgess Heiges is to retain the center plot in the square.

Rarely is there congested traffic there. On holidays and special occasions the town is blessed with thousands of visitors, but also on those occasions the Pennsylvania State Police are always willing to serve as traffic officers with the result that few serious accidents have to our knowledge, ever occurred in the square in almost a quarter of a century.

Lincoln and Gettysburg are synonymous and a Lincoln statue in the square would be appropriate and attractive.

Sputtering Senators Seek Facts On Critical "Voice Of America" Broadcasts

STATE DEPT. IS BEING QUIZZED ABOUT 'DRIVEL'

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
Washington, May 27 (AP)—Sputtering mad senators called the State Department on the carpet today for a full story behind Voice of America broadcasts they labeled as sabotage, slander and libel.

Sample broadcast excerpts:
"New England was founded by hypocrisy and Texas by sin."
Nevada's two main cities compete with each other because "people get married in Las Vegas and divorced in Reno."

"Drivel and Nonsense"
Sample reaction:
From Senator Hatch (D-N. M.): "Drivel, nonsense and downright falsehoods."

From Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.): A demand that Congress rescind the $27,000,000 appropriation it voted for next year to finance the world-wide radio programs intended to portray the democratic way of life in this country.

From Senator Capehart (R-Ind.): A promise to introduce a resolution calling for a top-to-bottom Congressional inquiry into the State Department's operation of the information program.

Two Are Fired
From the National Broadcasting company, which handled the programs under contract with the department: The writer who turned out the scripts has been fired and the supervisor who reviewed them has been "relieved of his post."

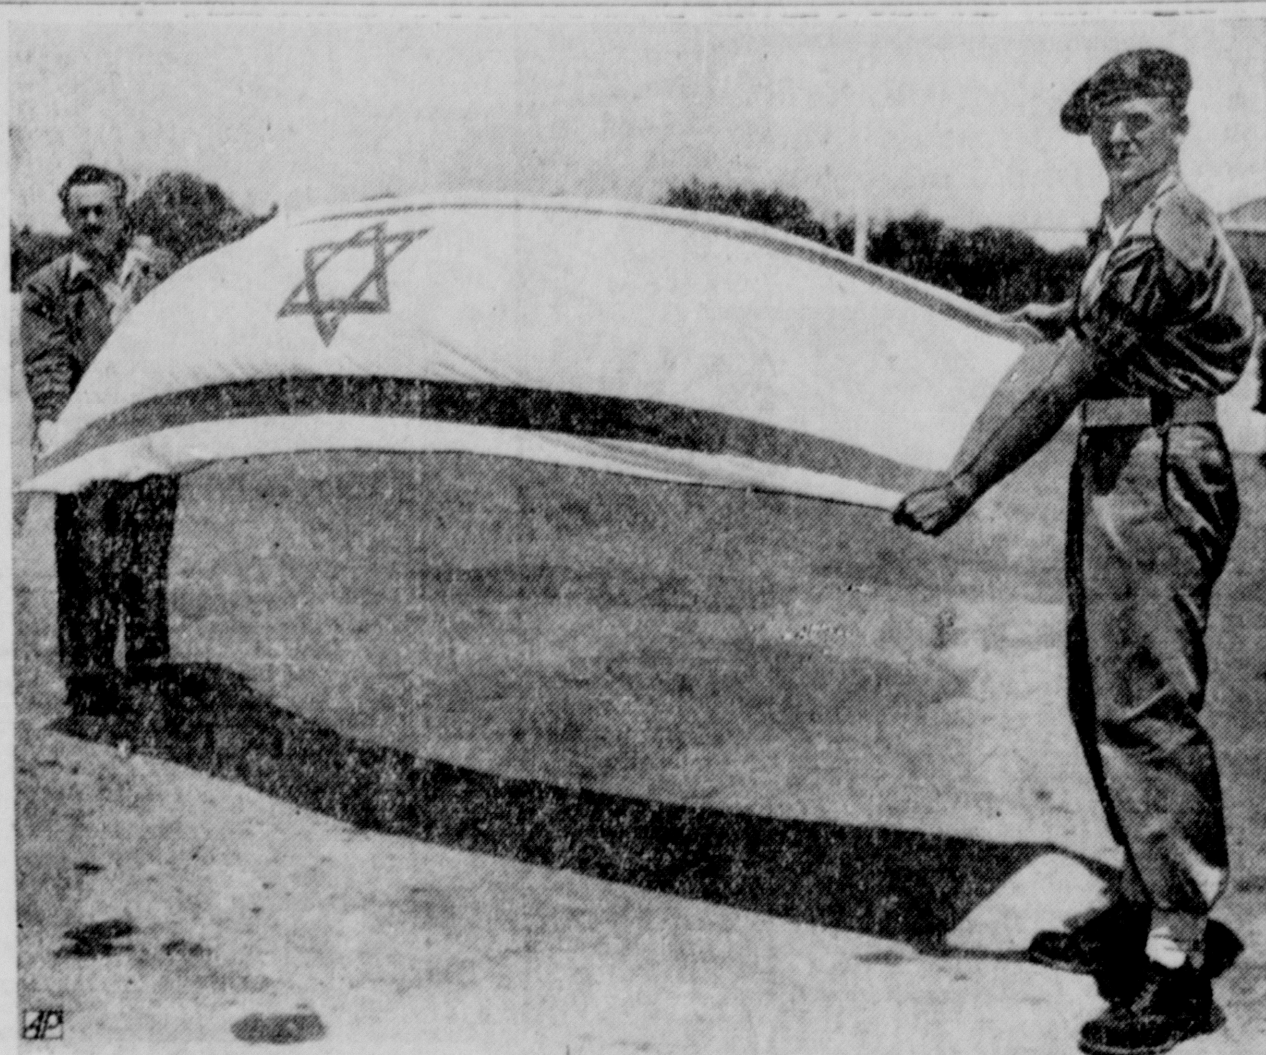

This, however, failed to dispel the storm.
It broke in the Senate last yesterday when Capehart read excerpts from a series of programs broadcast late in 1947 and early this year to South and Central America. The Indiana senator said they purported to deal with life and history of the 48 states as seen through the eyes of two travelers.

Promised Report
One script on Utah referred to Brigham Young, the Mormon leader, as "carrying a bottle of whiskey in one pocket and a cud of chewing tobacco in the other." But, said the script, Young used neither.
Quoting further, Capehart read that Alabama's Birmingham was "constructed in a hurry and they have not had time to improve it."

The same broadcast called Alabama the "darkest" of all the states: "In no other part of the United States have the colored people suffered and struggled as much as here."

Senator H. Alexander Smith (R-N. J.) said he had been in touch with the State Department and was told a preliminary report would be submitted to the Senate today. It was Smith who led the winning battle earlier this year for full authorization of the Voice programs, previously carried out under wartime White House authority.

According to his household records, George Washington paid as high as 15 cents a piece for pins.

Lutheran Body Ends Convention

Philadelphia, May 27 (AP)—The Lutheran Ministerium of Pennsylvania wound up its 201st convention today after naming members to various boards.

Elected to the executive board were, the Revs. Warren C. Heinly, Allentown, and Horace S. Mann, Reading and John Greiner, Scranton and James F. Henninger, Allentown.
The Rev. Elmer L. Leisley of Robeson, Pa., Paul J. Leitzel, Richfield, Pa., and Q. A. W. Rohrbach of Kutztown Teachers college were named to the board of missions for three years.

PUC Delays Rate Increase On Fares

Harrisburg, May 27 (AP)—The Schuylkill Valley Lines, Inc., of Norristown were under orders today from the Public Utility Commission to delay for six months a proposed increase in bus fares.

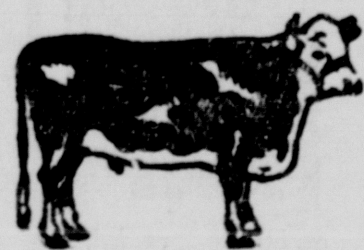

The PUC said in an order issued yesterday that it wanted the time to inquire into the "fairness, reasonableness, and lawfulness" of the increases originally scheduled to go into effect on Sunday, May 30.

The Schuylkill Valley Lines, which operate buses in Norristown, Conshohocken, North Wales and other points in Montgomery county were told to delay the proposed increases until November 30.

Vincent R. Smith, representing 11 officers of the union's New Kensington Local 302 suspended by Murray for political activity, declared that the union's constitution requires that officers be given "a fair trial" before they can be suspended.

Smith made the assertion yesterday in appealing an injunction by the Westmoreland county court ordering the suspended officers to turn over $112,000 and other union property to W. D. Gravatt, Murray-appointed administrator of the Local.

HOPES FOR LONG EXTENSION OF TRADE ACT FADE

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON
Washington, May 27 (AP)—Administration hopes for a longer than one year extension of the reciprocal trade agreements act faded today.

The only question is whether the Senate will go along with the House in curbing the President's tariff-making powers.

Democrats promised a "very hard fight"—first for a full three year extension and, if that fails, for a single year extension without the checkreins the House insisted upon by a 234 to 149 vote late yesterday.

Bitter debate preceded the House roll call. But the outcome was never in doubt. The GOP leadership was in full control.

Senate More Hopeful
Administration supporters were more hopeful in the Senate. Democratic leader Barkley of Kentucky told a reporter: "I believe the Senate atmosphere is more friendly to the trade program."

Both Barkley and Senator George, top ranking Democrat on the banking committee which will handle the bill, said they will battle to give the expiring trade act a three-year lease on life.

But George conceded the outlook for that is dim.

"I would be willing to go along with a one-year extension—as is—if we can eliminate the crippling amendments," he said.

Expires June 12
Senator Taft of Ohio, chairman of the Republican Policy committee, made it plain that is about the most the administration can hope for.

The 14 year old law expires June 12.

At present the President, through the state department, may negotiate trade agreements without referring them to Congress. These lower American import duties on certain goods if other nations reduce their tariffs on our exports.

Under the House extension the President would have to ask the tariff commission how far duties could be lowered without injuring the domestic economy or endangering the national security.

If the President went beyond the tariff commission's recommendations—a body composed of three Democrats and three Republicans—either the Senate or House could veto the agreement by voting disapproval within 60 days.

The first written use of the expression, "hair of the dog," is believed to be contained in an English translation of a French book published in 1616, when "haire of the beast that hath made thee ill" is prescribed as a cure for "the head that complain itself of too much drinks of wine."

Charles Franklin Brannan (above) was nominated by President Truman to be the new secretary of agriculture, succeeding Clinton P. Anderson, who resigned. Brannan is now assistant secretary of the department.

John Ireland Howe of Derby, Conn., invented the first successful pinmaking machine.

Electric eels in the fresh waters of South and Central America discharge electric shocks strong enough to stun human beings.

Tom proposed by telephone!

Even a marriage proposal is typical of the endless variety of services performed by telephone. For this and countless other reasons, most people appreciate the enormous value of the telephone. That is why our installations, which reached a record peak in 1947, are already soaring higher in 1948. We are anxious to bring the benefits of telephone service to all who wish it. Our progress in this direction gains speed with each passing day.

ILLEGITIMATE BIRTHS IN PA. SHOW DECLINE

Harrisburg, May 27 (AP)—The illegitimate birth rate in Pennsylvania is showing a decline, the state Health Department reported today.

The department's Bureau of Vital Statistics said that of the 149,015 live births filed during the first seven months of 1947, a total of 5,077 were registered as illegitimate.

This is a decline of almost 4 per cent under the rate for 1946, and although final figures for 1947 have not been completed, the bureau said "a further reduction is indicated" when complete figures are prepared.

Total Births High
Meanwhile, illegitimacy in the commonwealth during 1946 showed a drop from 44.7 down to 37.6 per thousand.

Total live births for 1946 were 219,094, with 8,241 of this number illegitimate. The 1945 records showed a total of 173,360 live births, including 7,743 illegitimacies.

Illegitimacy rates for the state's 67 counties in 1945 range from no illegitimate births in Pike county to 87.1 per thousand in Perry county. Compared with the illegitimacy rate for Pennsylvania in 1946, 26 counties had a rate higher than the state average.

HOPES RISE IN CHRYSLER TALK

Detroit, May 27 (AP)—Hopes for a quick settlement of the 16-day Chrysler strike rose today as the corporation and its auto workers resumed intensified wage talks after a night's rest.

Negotiations between Chrysler and the CIO United Auto Workers were recessed last night after nearly ten hours of bargaining. Both sides agreed to return to the conference table at noon (EST) today.

Neither the company nor the union had any comment on the progress of yesterday's talks toward ending a walkout of 95,000 Chrysler workers which began May 12.

However, there was an air of optimism as representatives for both sides prepared to continue their work.

For the second time, the UAW reduced its wage increase demand from 30 to 17 cents yesterday. The company made no official indication that it had upped its previous six-cent hourly offer.

However, in comparing county rates in 1945 and 1946, it was found that 45 counties had lower illegitimacy rates in 1946 than in the preceding year.

The bureau said that 1945 figures by the National Office of Vital Statistics for 38 states and the District of Columbia showed a rate of 46.2 illegitimate births per 1,000 live births in 1945. The Pennsylvania rate for that year was 40.9.

UN FAILURE IN HOLY LAND CASE DISUNITY SIGN

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

The failure of the United Nations thus far to achieve a truce in the Arab-Jewish war is tragic for the Holy Land and it's tragic for the peace organization, since it points to disunity within the U. N. itself.

The Arabs, while playing for time by calling on the U. N. to lay down exact terms for a political settlement, wouldn't agree to the truce called for except on conditions which included the demand that recognition of the new Jewish state of Israel be abandoned. This, of course, the Jews wouldn't accept.

So the conflict continues. It swirls about the birthplace of the prince of peace. It rages by the Mount of Olives, which stands for much that is cherished in Christian history—the place where Christ taught the disciples within the walls of ancient Jerusalem, where a small Jewish force has been stubbornly clinging to its hazardous position. Shells from Arab guns continue to batter the Holy city.

No Trend Yet

The war is still too young to disclose its trend. Not so the affairs of the United Nations—a house divided against itself. It is clear that if it cannot find a method of halting this new outbreak, its influence in the eyes of the world may drop so low as to render it impotent.

One of the greatest obstacles to peace lies in the fact that America and Britain are lined up on opposite sides. British Foreign Secretary Bevin told the House of Commons yesterday that England will continue to fulfill treaty obligations to furnish officers for the trans-Jordan Arab Legion unless this becomes "inconsistent with our obligations to the United Nations." On the other hand, observers figured that the Arab rejection of the truce was likely to harden the American stand favoring the Jewish state.

Not Easy Problem

The clash between America and Britain is further seen in the question of an American loan to Israel. Dr. Chaim Weizmann, first president of Israel, stated after a conference at the White House in Washington that a request for a loan of $90,000,000 to $100,000,000. This promptly evoked an expression of concern and astonishment from London.

However, the two great democracies certainly aren't allowing the matter to drift without making efforts to reconcile their differences. Foreign Minister Bevin and U. S. Ambassador Lewis Douglas are continuing their anxious search for ways and means of restoring peace in Palestine. And it is only fair to say that the problem is complicated and far from easy of solution.

START TALKS ON HARD COAL

Philadelphia, May 27 (AP)—John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers and representatives of the anthracite operators sit down today in an attempt to work out a new hard coal wage agreement.

The present agreement, which expires July 10 on notice given by Lewis to Ralph E. Taggart, covers approximately 80,000 anthracite miners in 225 mines in eight eastern Pennsylvania counties. Taggart is chairman of the anthracite operators' committee.

Today's meeting marks the first contract talks in two years between the UMW and hard coal operators. The miners have been working since 1946 under a pact with a provision that either party may give 30 days notice of termination.

Lewis has given no indication of what he will propose in the way of wages and Taggart wouldn't venture a guess.

High on the agenda, however, is expected to be negotiation pertaining to the anthracite health and welfare fund. District committees have proposed the union seek a 40-cent-per-ton royalty for the welfare fund. The present levy is 10 cents.

Union district committees also have proposed a cutback without loss of pay to the 35-hour-week from the present 40 hours and boost in vacation pay from $100 to $250.

"PROPAGANDA" LABEL AFFIXED TO RUSS MOVE

By EDWARD E. BOMAR

Washington, May 27 (AP)—The United States pinned a belated but official "propaganda" label today on Soviet Russia's spring peace offensive.

Charles E. Bohlen, state department counselor and secretary Marshall's principal adviser on dealings with Moscow, charged flatly that: 1. Foreign Minister Molotov "multiplied" Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith's re-statement of United States policy to make it sound like a proposal for direct negotiation of Soviet-American differences.

2. The way in which Moscow published the Smith-Molotov exchange—and Premier Stalin's response to Henry A. Wallace's open letter—showed Russia "was acting in the propaganda field and not in the realm of serious policy."

See New Expedition

Bohlen furthermore predicted in a commencement address at the University of Arizona last night that Russia will resort again to the same tactics of "distortion" in an effort to confuse people of the United States and the western democracies.

Bohlen thus went beyond President Truman and Secretary Marshall in declaring that the United States never intended to try to settle differences with Russia by means of a big power deal.

With sparks from the Molotov-Smith exchange still flying, diplomatic authorities said Russia apparently is planning a new fishing expedition into other troubled international waters.

Protest Promised

Moscow announced yesterday that the Soviet union has agreed to exchange consuls with the Indonesian republic, disregarding terms of a truce which a United Nations Good Offices Commission arranged in January between the Indonesians and the Netherlands.

This provided that the Dutch should handle international relations for the new East Indies republic. Netherlands officials here said Russia never before had a consul in the East Indies. They added that if a Soviet consul goes to Jogjakarta, the Indonesian capital, the Netherlands will file a vigorous protest.

It was not immediately clear why the Kremlin wants a listening post in the new nation set up after bloody civil warfare last year.

But Bohlen's speech as Tucson left no such uncertainty as to the state department's final and official view of the short-lived Soviet peace offensive.

VFW CARNIVAL PLANS ADVANCE

Plans for the second annual Emmitsburg Veterans of Foreign Wars carnival to be held June 14 to 19 on the high school grounds are proceeding rapidly, post officials announced today, with about 25 amusements and concessions secured so far for the affair.

Completely managed by the veterans, the carnival will feature free entertainment nightly and most of the concessions will be operated by the veterans themselves. A list of the men to operate the various amusements is being completed at the present time.

The committee in charge of the event includes Louis Stoner, Charles Rowe, Sr., Harold Hoke, Thomas Gilling and Lumen Norris.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the post will operate the food stand at the carnival and members of the post will operate pony rides, games and the like. A ferris wheel and similar amusements have also been secured.

The entertainment will include, on Monday, June 14, Sammy Moss and his Blue Mountain Boys; Tuesday, June 15, Martinez Animal Show; Wednesday, June 16, Dan Martin's

Keilholtz Opens New Restaurant

M. G. Keilholtz, in the restaurant business in the Emmitsburg area since 1925, has opened a new restaurant, the "White House" located on South Seton avenue, near the public high school.

The restaurant is offering light lunches only pending the arrival of additional kitchen equipment. The restaurant is designed to seat 88 people with room for about 50 more if necessary. The ceiling has been sound-proofed. Walls are of soft blue and a field stone wainscoting three feet high has been placed around all sides. At one end of the room is an open fireplace. At the other end is the serving counter and snack-bar.

Among employees of the new restaurant are Mrs. M. G. Keilholtz, Greta Keilholtz, Norma Plax, Nancy Gerken, Martina Adlesberger, Beverly Miller, Peninah McNair, Ruth Neighbors, Bill Sterbinsky, Bobby Jordan and Kenny Keilholtz.

The restaurant is the former Zimmerman and Maxwell warehouse and was once used as a canning factory. Several years ago Keilholtz purchased the building and remodeled it, constructing a number of apartments, painting it white, and landscaping nearly a half acre of lawn. Keilholtz is the owner of the Palm lunch in Emmitsburg which is operated by a son, Clifford Keilholtz.

High School Will Mark Anniversary

The 50th anniversary of Emmitsburg's public high school will be celebrated June 12 with a banquet and dance sponsored by the Alumni association of the school.

Dr. Harry Hayes, a graduate of the school, will be the speaker at the dinner to be held at the Lutheran Parish hall. He will give a history of some of the more illustrious graduates of the school, Mrs. Ralph Sperry, chairman of the committee in charge, said.

Mrs. Sarah Hoke, a member of the first class to graduate from the high school and still a resident of Emmitsburg, is to be an honor guest at the dinner. Three of her children are also graduates of the school.

The dance will be held at the high school auditorium with William Sterbinsky's orchestra providing the music.

Emmitsburg

The annual Corpus Christi procession will be held on Sunday at 7 o'clock p.m. at St. Joseph's Catholic church. The Feast of Corpus Christi is today but will be solemnized on Sunday. The three benedictions will be celebrated as usual on this occasion.

There will be two benedictions outside the church and the third inside the church. The altars for the benedictions will be decorated with flowers and one will be in front of the high school auditorium, the second one will be in the rectory grove and the last one in church. The entire congregation is urged to participate in this celebration.

The Farmers' State bank will be closed all day Monday in observance of Memorial Day.

Charles Harner and George L. Willhide left Wednesday afternoon to spend three days in Atlantic City. They will attend the Lions club convention and also the bankers' convention which is being held at the same time.

John Gelwicks, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Gelwicks had the misfortune of falling from his high chair at his home on Monday and fracturing his elbow. He was treated at the Warner hospital.

Mrs. E. L. Higbee left Tuesday to spend a week with her brother, John Kilmer, of Worcester, Mass. She was accompanied by her granddaughter, Mary Corl of Sabillasville, Md.

Miss Naomi Harbaugh of Baltimore spent the week end with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Troxell.

Prof. B. J. Eckenrode has returned home after spending several weeks with his daughter, Anne, in New Orleans.

Miss Mary Louise Callahan, employed at the Book Nook has been confined to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Callahan, Gettysburg, with a very bad case of the mumps.

It was incorrectly stated in a recent news item that Mr. and Mrs. Dale Weikert entertained at a birthday dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Topper and family. The name of the host and hostess should have read, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Shields. The correspondent regrets the error.

The next evening of games sponsored by the Sodality of St. Joseph's Catholic church will be held at the home of Mrs. Harry Boyle on June 18.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post No. 6658 of Emmitsburg, will sponsor a carnival beginning June 14 and running the entire week.

Dr. and Mrs. D. L. Beagle left Tuesday for Atlantic City where they will attend the Lions club convention being held there the latter part of the week.

Make Plans For Fishing Contest

Emmitsburg sportsmen are completing plans for the second annual fishing contest to determine the angler who will secure the largest small mouth bass from local waters.

Harold Hoke, in charge of "The One That Did Not Get Away" contest said that prizes will be awarded in two divisions, one for adults and the other for junior fishermen under 14 years of age.

The fish must be caught in Middle creek, Tom's creek or the Monocacy river.

Registration will be held in June and only those who are registered will be eligible. A small registration fee will be used to raise approximately one-half of the prize money.

Last year's winners were Dominic Greco who secured a 19 inch fish, Professor Richards who caught an 18 inch bass and William Rowe whose best catch measured 17 1/2 inches.

"Dippy Dan Western Hi-Ho", Thursday, June 17, Bud Messner and the Skyline Boys; Friday, June 18, Joe Phillips and the Dixie Pals, and Saturday, Dan Martin's "Dippy Dan Western Hi-Ho."

As late as the 1890s, persons who affected long fingernails were thought to use them as a shield against doing any work.

Annual Prom June 3 At Catholic High

The annual Junior-Senior Prom at the Emmitsburg Catholic high school will be held Thursday, June 3, the committee in charge announced today. Dancing to the music of Pat Patterson's orchestra from Hanover will continue from 8:30 until 12 o'clock.

Decorations in the hall at the high school, where the dance will be held, are being installed by members of the junior and senior classes.

All alumni of the school are invited to attend the affair although special invitations will not be sent this year as was customary heretofore, the committee said. It was also announced that each junior and senior can invite one other couple to the event.

PLANS NEW BUSINESS

William Smith, Emmitsburg, is planning to establish a dry cleaning establishment in that borough at 12 East Main street. Machinery for the laundry and cleaning business has been purchased and will be installed upon arrival, Smith said. The owner of the new business is a former employee of a Gettysburg dry cleaning concern.

Chapter 19

"Is the coming south soon — your cousin?" Hildred asked. Lucien shrugged again. "One never knows what Dodo will do; she is unpredictable. But I presume she will come. Liz has written her — the royal command — that she should. The marriage is supposed to take place when Dodo arrives. Liz has had some set idea about the ceremony being performed here, without benefit of fuss—as you might call it."

"Most girls like a lot of fuss for their wedding," Hildred returned. "It is what my mother wishes — not, Dodo. The line of Lucien's handsome mouth was grim. "Though in this particular case, I must say I am on Liz's side. There is no use in having a lot of publicity. The quieter — and quicker it is over, the better, no doubt. Though the hurry, again, is Liz's idea — not ours."

She saw that he did not want to talk any more just now. So she kept silent.

It was at that moment — which must have appeared one of intimacy indeed — that the countess entered the room.

"I trust I am not intruding," Lucien's mother said.

Lucien stood up to face his mother. His eyes were hard and bitter, his mouth sardonic. He gave a little bow, from his slender waist. "You never intrude, Liz."

The countess crossed over to sit down beside her, all graciousness. "Men are only little boys — as we women know," she said, addressing herself to her young guest. "They never grow up. Their women must look after them."

It was evident that she had read the silent message Hildred had sent her — to let her son find his own happiness.

She practically said as much when, the pleasant week-end finally over, it was time for Hildred and Jimmy to take their departure. Hildred and the little boy had each made an appropriate thank you speech—Jimmy's so spontaneous and sincere that the countess had given him a pat on his dark head and told him he was to visit the great house whenever he liked; Hildred's — she hoped — showed the proper appreciation and its sincerity, too.

"It is I who must thank you," Lucien's mother said. "And to you I say also, please come as often as you like. Of course you will, my dear. I would like you to come to see me, as well as my son. I would like you to be friends with me, Hildred — may I call you that, please? — as well as Lucien. He shall not keep you all for himself."

The last was playfully reproving and teasing, but the rest was genuine, so that Hildred was touched. "I wish you would," she said in reply to being called by her first name. "And it would give me much pleasure to be the friend of Lucien's mother, as well as his. I promise to come just to see you when I can. But you know," honesty as well as a desire to be the one, for a change, to remind the countess of the vast differences between herself and a little county nurse, prompted the next remark. "I work — all the time, nearly. I only have half days Saturday and Sundays to call my own. I feel that my time, otherwise, belongs to those I try to help."

"You must tell me more about that clinic of yours," the countess said, making it one of her royal commands, yet a gracious one. "I see the secret of your happiness, my child — helping others — and not just those children for whom you do so much, but all with whom you come into contact."

"I can hardly do that much!" Hildred protested, the lovely color deepening in her face. She had no idea how beautiful she was in such moments as this. "I like to do what I can for my friends, as well as those who come to the clinic, but I am afraid, in both cases, it is but little I can do."

She meant that — thinking again of Jimmy and her promise to him. "That shows how little you really know!" It was Lucien who spoke up now. "About the good you do, I mean. You — and Jimmy — have made this old house come alive this week-end. I am counting on you next Saturday you know. And you might as well let Jimmy come then again too. In fact, I understand he and Robin have a date all set."

It began to look as if her week-ends from now on would be pretty well planned for her, but there was nothing Hildred could say, at present, to change that, even had she wished. When they finally arrived at some permanent arrangement for Jimmy — she meant to take up the matter of trying to get him adopted if it did seem an unlikely prospect, or again, when Lucien's cousin, Dodo, arrived for the wedding, well, then things would change again.

Chapter 20

Mrs. McNaughten had not said how long she planned on being away, but when she had been gone nearly two weeks—with the small apartment so very empty without her — Hildred became somewhat alarmed.

"I'm afraid Mummie is ill, down with one of her spells she confided to Randy one evening when he drove her home from the clinic and stopped in for awhile. She and Randy were back on the old terms again, good "pals," during their off hours, nurse and doctor while at the clinic.

"If you're worried," Randy suggested "why don't you call long distance and find out?"

Hildred thought that an excellent suggestion; she knew her mother would never write if anything was

MINE FIRE FUND RECOMMENDED

Washington, May 27 (AP) — A quarter million dollars was recommended by the House Appropriations committee today to fight coal mine fires.

Rep. Fenton (R-Pa.) and spokesmen for the U.S. Bureau of Mines told the committee at hearings on Interior department funds that the fires are threatening lives and property and are burning up one of the nation's valuable resources.

The fire fighting would be conducted by technicians of the Bureau of Mines. After a year a report would be submitted to Congress on the results.

It is the first time an appropriation has been recommended for such a purpose, Fenton said. The need for it was stressed by Fenton, a resident of Pennsylvania's hard coal region, who was chairman of the subcommittee which considered the money request by the Bureau of Mines.

He said one such fire has been burning for years in the vicinity of Mount Carmel, Pa. It is endangering property, he said, and the fumes are making people sick. The community and the county, he said, have spent large sums of money fighting the fire and now are asking for outside help.

Hildred glanced at him sideways. She wished she could see his expression, but dark had descended during their drive. "That doesn't sound like you! You always believe in getting at the root of the trouble." Could Randy be keeping anything from her in regard to her mother?

Adults, 35c, Tax Included

This is our 18th consecutive season in this line of business and, as in past years, we will be directly under the supervision and guidance of the State Health Department at Harrisburg. This year, as in the past 17 years, we are very satisfied to adhere to their requirements, which are:

- (1) Carry a Chlorine Residual of 0.2 to 0.6
- (2) Carry a pH Test of 6.8 to 7.2
- (3) Add Copper Sulphate in Sufficient Quantities to Eliminate Any Algae Formation

The pool itself has a capacity of 100,000 gallons of water and on an average of 18,000 to 20,000 gallons of fresh water, which is derived from two artesian wells, added daily. The water is purified with a Wallace and Tiernan Chlorinator approved by the State Health Authorities.

ASK FUNDS FOR FLOODED MINES

Washington, May 27 (AP)—The House Appropriations Committee has recommended $291,100 to begin an investigation of underground floods in Pennsylvania's anthracite mines.

This short-cut would make it unnecessary for the Senate to pass a bill to Rep. Fenton (R-Pa.) to authorize $500,000 for such a study. The bill, already approved by the House, has been awaiting Senate consideration for some time.

The appropriations committee—on which Fenton served as chairman of the Bureau of Mines subcommittee—was told during hearings that in the opinion of the budget bureau authorization already exists for such a study. The committee then voted $291,100 for the first year. It said other appropriations will have to be made later.

The study has been described as necessary to save the anthracite industry from financial ruin and to save lives and property of workers and residents of Pennsylvania's hard coal regions. It has the backing of the Bureau of Mines, the hard coal industry and the United Mine Workers.

The committee was told during hearings that the study involved a vast problem of underground lakes filled with billions of gallons of water that are pushing dangerously against mine walls. At times the walls give way and miners are drowned.

Littlestown

Littlestown—Faculty members of the Daily Vacation Bible school are requested to meet in the grade school building Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Every member is urged to be present as final plans will be made for the opening of the school on June 1.

Members of Cub Pack No. 84, Den Mothers and Den Fathers and the Pack committee will meet at the high school at 6:15 p. m., Sunday to participate in the Memorial Day parade.

The official board of the Centenary Methodist church will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the church.

A surprise baby shower was held for Linda Louise Blocher, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blocher, at their home on West King street, on Tuesday evening, by Mrs. John Sentz, Mrs. Bernard Weaver and Mrs. Clinton O. Sentz. Those in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Trostle, the child's maternal grandparents; Mrs. T. J. Blocher, her paternal grandmother; Mrs. Hadley Blocher, son, James; Mrs. Howard Trostle, Mrs. Lowell Ruggles, Mrs. Ralph Staley, Mrs. Richard Staley, son, William, Mr. J. Donald Lemmon, Mrs. Glenn E. Ohler, Mrs. Earl Smith, Mrs. Monroe Staveland, Mrs. John Flickinger, Miss Charlotte Slick, the hostesses and the infant and her mother. Following the opening and displaying of the gifts, a social hour was enjoyed during which refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The semi-monthly meeting of the Mason and Dixon Memorial post No. 6954, Veterans of Foreign Wars, was held on Tuesday evening at the post home and was presided over by Commander Kenneth L. Steick. One new applicant for membership, Lawrence H. Dooley, was elected into the organization. He will report at the next regular meeting of the post for initiation. The post made plans

AVOID PROSTRATION

Danger of summer heat prostration in the home can be minimized if the house is insulated with mineral wool because this makes living quarters as much as 15 degrees cooler.

Heating engineers find that more than 44 per cent of all heat in a home escapes through walls and ceilings that are not insulated.

to be represented at the twenty-first district meeting to be held on Sunday, June 6, at VFW Post No. 15, Gettysburg. It was announced that the members of the local post will march with their colors in the annual Memorial Day Parade to be held at 6:30 p. m. Veterans are requested to participate out of respect to their comrades who made the supreme sacrifice. Those to appear in the line of march will report to the playground at 6:15 where the parade will form. The post has booked a donkey baseball game to be played on the Littlestown playground on Thursday evening, July 8. A committee to make arrangements for this affair will be appointed in the near future. The next meeting of the post is scheduled for Tuesday, June 8, at 8 p. m.

Ask Big Sum For Synthetic Fuels

Washington, May 27 (AP)—The House appropriations committee has recommended $7,250,000 for work on synthetic liquid fuels during the year starting July 1. This is $2,500,000 less than asked by the Budget Bureau.

The committee said it was recommending the cut because it believed there would be a carry-over of funds from this year's appropriation which would enable the program to go ahead without interruption. It said if it's found that more money is needed it "will give every consideration to any additional request."

The program, which is being conducted by the Bureau of Mines in a number of experimental plants, is aimed at production of synthetic liquid fuels from such things as coal, oil shales, agricultural and forestry products. More than $24-

Help Get Food Digested to Relieve Yourself of This Nervous Distress

Do you feel all puffed-up and miserable after every meal, taste sour, bitter food? If so, here is how you may get blessed relief in helping your stomach do the job—it should be doing—in the digestion of its food.

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—→ with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Building Ideas For Home Owners Of This Community

LOCATE GARAGE WITH REGARD FOR SPACE, UTILITY

There are three main choices for location of the garage: Attached to one side of the house, beneath the house, or standing alone at the rear of the yard. The latter location is generally discarded today because of the large amount of space sacrificed for driveway.

Most widely-used is the garage attached to the front of the house because it is more accessible and convenient in all weather. Care should be taken, however, that the entrance is in harmony with the rest of the house and that a fire barrier such as fireproof mineral wool insulation is placed between garage and house wall. A new idea is to provide a back door as well as a front entrance so the car can be driven into the back yard for washing or other work. Efficient automatic doors are now available at a cost which is not excessive.

Before placing a garage beneath the house, consideration should be given, especially in cold climates to the fact that the driveway will fill with snow, and unless adequate drains are provided within the garage, it will become flooded by heavy rains. It must also be remembered that the driveway ramp sunk into the ground creates a hazard for children at play because of the danger of tumbling off the retaining walls. Best use of the garage beneath the house is when the home is built on a hillside so the car can be driven straight into the garage without need for a ramp. The ceiling should be insulated with batts or blankets of mineral wool to minimize fire danger and to prevent rooms above the garage from becoming cold.

SAGGING SCREEN DOORS

Sagging screen doors that stick can be trued up by attaching a rod and turnbuckle extending diagonally from an upper to a lower corner and tightening the turnbuckle until the door swings free.

HOUSING PLAN SERVICE, Inc. 803

THE TAYLOR—Modern lines distinguish this six room, two-story house, the TAYLOR. Pictured here it is finished in wide clapboard laid 8, to the weather to the top of the parapet around the second story sun deck. Above the parapet level flush siding makes a perfect background for the triple-sash casement windows. The house would look equally appropriate built of cement cinder block with a plaster coat of smooth white stucco.

In addition to its six rooms and bath it has an attached garage, a good sized breakfast room adjoining the kitchen, a first floor lavatory and a full basement with ample space for the heating plant, laundry and for a large recreation room.

The living room is 25 feet long. A dining "L" 11½ feet deep extends the living room to over 36 feet for large parties. It opens into a rear covered porch which in turn is supplemented by a large open terrace. The stairs rise out of a spacious hall off which the coat closet and the lavatory open. The front door is reached from the kitchen without passing through the living room. The breakfast room is 11½ feet by 6 feet. The location of the garage eliminates the necessity for a long driveway and turnaround.

The three bedrooms on the second floor are large and with abundant closet space. Two of them open onto the canvas covered deck, which is ideal for sun bathing and outdoor sleeping.

Its simple straightforward lines and its unbroken hipped roof make it an economical house per cubic foot of available space. It was designed to conform to the standards and requirements of Federal Housing Administration. Its electrical plan carries the approval of National Adequate Wiring Bureau. Complete architect's working drawings and specifications cost $7.50 per set and should be ordered from Housing Plan Service, 149 Nassau St., New York 7, N. Y.

PAINTING HINT either inside or outside the house. At last two days should elapse Unless each coat is thoroughly dry, between successive coats of paint, succeeding coats will peel off.

Oak Floors Should Be Placed Last

Manufacturers of oak and other hardwood flooring emphasize that it should be laid only after all construction work, plastering, plumbing, painting and so on have been completed. Subfloors should serve as working surfaces during those operations, they say. This procedure eliminates many of the possibilities for marring the finished floors.

NEEDLESS DISCOMFORT There would have been no fuel shortage last winter, government figures indicate, if the 85 per cent

Can't Duplicate Beauty Of Oak

While oak flooring can be finished in a variety of shades by means of colored stains and fillers, many home owners prefer to leave the wood in its original color. This is done either by omitting stain and filler or using the colorless types. The striking natural beauty of oak, which cannot be duplicated in man-made products, is due partly to the distinctive variations of shades within the wood.

URGES INTEREST IN VITAL ISSUES

Pittsburgh, May 27 (AP)—Church members should have "an intelligent concern for vital political issues," delegates to the Pittsburgh synod of the United Lutheran church were told last night at the final session of the three-day meeting.

Urging more active participation by Christians in political life, Dr. Carl E. Lund-Quist, assistant executive director and secretary of public relations of the national Lutheran council, added:

"The church needs freedom of worship, a free press; freedom from fear, and freedom to work, if it is to serve the highest mandates of God and man. The church can survive without these freedoms but only at a terrible price in suffering, persecution and martyrdom."

Dr. Lund-Quist said that the Church in America "has done more to keep freedom alive than any other element of society because it emphasizes the truth, the importance of the individual, and the necessity of a faith in God. X X X"

In its final business session, the synod adopted a budget of $563,067 for 1949. Rev. H. Marburger of New Brighton was named synodical director of Lutheran World Action.

St. Patrick's birthplace has been variously said to be Scotland, England, Wales and France. Studies of very low temperatures are called cryogenics.
